
THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 1, 1901.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Judge Estes, not being able to hold Rabun county court, it was postponed until the first Monday in May.

Fate Turner, a young man working near Auraria, but whose home is in White county, accidentally cut his leg severely with an axe while splitting rails latter part of last week.—Dawsonville Advertiser.

The revenue officials visited Auraria district latter part of last week. They found an old still place and had a race after some of the boys, who were two-long winded for the officers and got away.

The big fire in Atlanta last week bounded by Deatur, Lloyd and Collins streets and Railroad avenue destroyed property aggregating half a million dollars. This is the Markham block which was burned once before, in 1895.

Gus Fellows, who is charged with raping a white girl in Jackson Co. some time ago, is back in the tower in Atlanta again. The jury failed to agree and he gets another rest for awhile if Judge Lynch does not interfere with him.

"Sis" Smith, who was charged with walking her hands, was tried in Gainesville last week for running a blind tiger, but for lack of evidence was acquitted. Not being able to make a living only by selling liquor the authorities decided to place her where she could be supported by the county.

The five successful students in the contest for the appointments offered by the Atlanta Journal who sent in the most coupons taken from that paper, free transportation to Washington to witness the inauguration of the president, are: S. A. Harris, 16; 475; H. B. Nussally, 16; 182; E. P. Nonnelly, Jr., 14; 814; W. Shoats, 13; 185; N. L. Terrell, 10; 802. As Mr. Terrell is not attending the N. G. A. College now we do not know whether he is entitled or not.

Sister Nation is not creating so much excitement in Kansas now as she has been. The old woman is still in jail. She is becoming tired of her imprisonment and wants to get out, who has written the Judge a letter to that effect saying that she was one of Gods children of words to that effect, and that wonderful thing will take place if she isn't released. She has already caused the death of one woman and should be kept in the coop until she learns to behave herself. She is mistaken about being one of Gods children. His children have better manners. None of them were ever known to visit groceriers and make an ass of themselves. Later, Mrs. Nation is out on bond, but the Lord hadn't nothing to do with it. He didn't get her into trouble and He didn't take her out.

Several widows on the pension roll will not get their pensions this year. There is only $740 left of the $800,000 appropriated by the legislature for widows pensions. There are fifteen widows to be paid in White county, and their applications arrived yesterday. The amount left is sufficient to pay only twelve widows, so that three of those in White county will have to do without their pension money this year. No pensions at all have been paid in Travis and Lincoln counties, and the widows of those counties must likewise do without their pensions. Pension Commissioner Lindsey has application for about three thousand more of the application blanks for widows under the law adopted by the last legislature. This will make six thousand and blanks in all to be sent out, and if there are many widows it will practically be impossible to pay any of them with the meager $100,000 the legislature has appropriated for the purpose. It is said there will be some six hundred applications from Fulton county alone.—Atlanta Constitution.

Mr. Moore, a deep miner from Ducktown, has come over to work for the Consolidated Co.

Mrs. J. B. Sullivan, an aged lady who resided in the eastern portion of the county, died last Wednesday. She was the mother of 22 children, all being dead but four.

It seems that not enough cattle is being brought to Dahlonega to supply the market with beef, thus compelling the market men to have to purchase a portion of their beef in Gainesville, a distance of 25 miles, in order to meet the demand, and then can't do it.

Those who took stock in the Dahlonega and Gainesville Telephone Co. are well pleased with their investment, saying nothing of the conveniences it gives. In our last weeks issue, we told of the Atlanta fire which was destroying thousands of dollars worth of property more than a hundred miles away, even before it appeared in the paper of that city. All this resulted from having telephone communication with the outside world.

APPLICATION FOR CHARTER.

GEORGIA—LUMPKIN COUNTY.

To the Superior Court of said county: The petition of Thomas H. Hicks, subject of the kingdom of Great Britain, residing at Fort Wayne, Indiana; John H. Bass, of Fort Wayne, Indiana; George H. Breyman, of Toledo, Ohio; Frank G. Thomson, of Toledo, Ohio; Mark Hopkins, of St. Clair, Michigan; Frank L. Adams, of Delaware, O.; J. G. Rosenthal, of Delaware, O.; W. A. Adams, of Chattanooga, Tennessee; R. C. Thomson, of Dahlonega, Georgia; and H. D. Ingersoll, of Dahlonega, Georgia, respectfully shew:

(1) That they desire for themselves, their associates, successors and assigns to be incorporated under the name and style of "Hicks Gold and Silver Extraction Company,"

(2) They desire to be incorporated for the term of twenty years, with the privilege of renewal at the expiration of that time.

(3) The objects of the incorporation are:

A. To take over and acquire what is known as the Hicks Process of Amalgamation of Ores and all letters patent, and patent rights issued or to be issued, and all rights, privileges and benefits of or pertaining to said process, and to sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

B. To purchase, control, operate, license and manufacture any and all apparatus or appliances embodied in said Hicks process for extracting metals from ores by heat and amalgamation together with all improvements thereupon, which have been or may be patented in the United States, and likewise to acquire Letters Patent and patent rights therefor, and to sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

C. To purchase, control, operate, license, sell and manufacture any and all apparatus and appliances that may be of a kindred nature to said process, or which may be used in conjunction with said process or which may be employed in the developing, perfecting, or operating said process, and likewise to acquire Letters Patent and patent rights therefor, and to sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

D. To purchase or otherwise acquire ores for treatment by said process or by any of the appliances or apparatus hereinbefore mentioned and set forth.

E. To erect, install, equip, operate, maintain, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of plants and works for use and employment of said process in the business of extracting metals from ores.

(4) They desire the right to promote and organize other and subsidiary corporations having in view the accomplishment of the various objects above set forth and to that end to subscribe to and purchase the capital stock of such subsidiary corporations, having always in view that the subscription to and purchase of such capital stock shall in no wise be for the purpose or have the effect of defeating or lessening competition, or of encouraging monopoly in their respective businesses, and no contract made with them shall have or be intended to have such effect.

(5) They desire the right to do all such things and exercise all such powers as are necessary and proper in the conduct of their business and in effectuating the various objects of the incorporation.

(6) They desire the right to contract for, lease buy and hold such real estate as may be useful or proper in the conduct of their business and to sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise encumber the same; to issue bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness as the interests of the corporation may suggest and its Board of Directors may determine.

(7) They desire, as such corporation, to have the right to sue and be sued; to have and use a common seal; to make and prescribe such regulations and by-laws for its government as may be needful or proper and not contrary to law; to constitute and elect a Board of Directors and such officers as are usual and as may be prescribed by such by-laws, and they further desire all the general powers and privileges which may be conferred upon and are incident to corporations of said State of Georgia, which by-law are chartered by the Superior Courts.

(8) The capital stock of said corporation shall be ($3,000,000) three million dollars divided into shares of one dollar each. And they desire the right to issue said capital stock, upon the organization of said corporation, as fully paid up and non-assessable stock; to take in full payment thereof an assignment and transfer of and the right and title to a certain invention of the said Thomas H. Hicks, being an improvement in amalgamators for extracting amalgamable metals from their ores, patent having been applied for said invention on March 28, 1900, and Letters Patent having been issued therefor from the Patent Office of the United States on the 30th day of October 1900, said Letters Patent being numbered 690,774.

(9) The principal office of said corporation shall be at Dahlonega, said county of Lumpkin, State of Georgia. Petitioners desire the right to establish and maintain a branch office at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and such others as the stockholders may from time to time elect to establish.

Wherefore petitioners pray to be made a body corporate under the name and style aforesaid, and that a charter be granted them conferring the rights, privileges and powers herein set forth as at petitioned for.

THE NUGGET.

DAYLONEGA, MARCH 1, 1901.

We told you so.

A big nugget discovered.

Geowildakins. What next?

Dahlonega's population still increases.

It looks like wonders will never cease in our city.

By the proper investment you can double results here in more than mining.

I will sell 2 lbs. of Arbuckles Coffee for 25c. on Monday next, limited to 2 lbs. to the customer. Monday only. H. D. Gentry.

J. N. DuPre, after being in Galveston, Tex., for some time, returned to his home in Dahlonega last Monday.

Harris Postell has made bond and is out of jail, once more enjoying his freedom after being confined a few weeks.

Go to John H. Moore's and get your seed Irish potatoes so as to have them ready to plant when gardening time comes. Also onion sets.

At T. J. Smiths you will find all kinds of garden seeds, onion buttons, Irish potatoes and plows and other tools suitable to cultivate them.

The small photos at the Davidson gallery are quite a novelty. They are made in three different positions at 40c. per dozen, 25c. for half dozen. See samples at gallery.

Photographer Davidson says the thieves who have been stealing for some time certain young ladies photos from his gallery are politely requested to return them as they may get into trouble.

J. W. Chapman has purchased the Miller Davis farm out on the Hightower river, subscribed for the Nugget and moved where he will devote his time in reading of nights and tilling the ground during the day.

A coachwhip snake was discovered on Joseph Stargel's farm in the eastern portion of the county on Thursday last. It was a cold freezing day nevertheless the reptile was there, full of life, so much so that the snake grabbed a whip when it was struck at which it held till killed. It was a six footer.

Auraria District has had three deaths within the past ten or twelve days, being Mrs. Wm. W. Waster, Thomas Christian and Jno. Loggins. The first two are among the oldest people of the county, while the latter is a young man well known in this community. The relatives of the deceased have out sympathies in their sad bereavement. Later—Old Mrs. Loggins, mother of Jacob Loggins, also died on last Wednesday night.

We notice that one of our merchants has stopped up the cat hole in the door of his business house, experimenting to see which does the least damage, the cats or the rats, and the ones that do the least will get free access. There is nothing like being saving. Every mining company should follow this example. Stop the cat holes until you find out which laborer or superintendent will run your operations to the best interest and save and make you the most money, then keep him.

Collector Richardson and Deputy Marshal Grizzle went up into Chestatee district and got little Kate Seabolt's hundred gallon still besides destroying a large amount of beer and other stuff about the distillery, last week. A run had been made the night before and the liquor carried away and hid close by but it was moved before the officers got to the hiding place and the weather was too cold for them to tarry long in the mountains. When getting in sight of Seabolt's house he was at work on the farm looking as innocent as a lamb—like he had never seen a still in his life. Such is life.

We have not changed the publication of the Nugget but put the papers in the office on Thursday at 1 o'clock so that all persons receiving their mail here can get them when getting their other mail.

The moonshiners are getting pretty sharp and are right hard to catch up with when they visit the city. They put out pickets from the public square to the place where they have their liquor so as to give the signal when the marshal is seen going that way.

There has really gotten to be too many holidays observed at the college here to be beneficial to the young man or young lady earnestly seeking an education with but limited means. They are here on expenses and desire to complete their education as early as possible. The idle days lost can never be regained.

Some of you girls and young ladies surely wouldn't make yourselves so conspicuous if you knew of the many remarks that are being made about you. This is not leap year. The girl that shows herself the most and wants to marry the worst will not catch a true lover the quickest by acting this way. Girls should be very careful, else they may come to grief and be caused to think of the song of "He passes by and he won't come in."

A party was in town last week soliciting subscriptions for the relief of Jim Blackwell of Union county, who had the misfortune the other night of losing his house by fire and nearly everything he possessed. Not much was raised here as our citizens have so many calls by those residing in the county that they are unable to do much for outsiders. The fire originated in the kitchen and the roof was falling in when the family awoke, barely having time to save a few things before the residence was in flames.

On Thursday evening of last week there were services at the Baptist church, a spelling bee at the college and a party some where in town, all going on at the same time—something to please every one. This is a good way. Then boys and girls in love with each other can attend the party or spelling bee instead of having to go to church and sit with chewing gum in their mouths, looking at each other with the slobber running from their lips like a sick kitten, not hearing a single word the preacher says.

Deputy Collector Spence informed us Friday that he had a battle with some of the moonshiners of Fannin county a day or two after he left Dahlonega the last time. It was in Rock Creek district, in the neighborhood where the officers were fired on some two years ago. Hopkins and Stanley, two other officials, were along. They had destroyed some stills and were coming out, thinking that all danger was over, when all of a sudden bang, bang, bang, went several mountain rifles by parties in the distant concealed behind trees and logs, at the same time setting up a big yell, thinking probably that the officers would run. One bullet struck a tree a few feet above Collector Spence's head, but this did not frighten him. He grabbed up his Krug-Jorgenson rifle and went to firing at the spot where the shooting was being kept up, while the other two officers used their pistols. Mr. Spence seeing one of the moonshiners took good aim and fired. At the crack of the gun the man turned round a few times and retreated, his associates doing likewise. The officers followed them a short distance but the mountaineers were soon out of sight. The Collector feels confident that he hit the man. The officer informs us that the blockaders in that community have gone on with their business for years, with but little molestation, and the wood from many acres has been cut and used under the furnaces.

M. M. London, of this county, is very sick.

Four packages of oat meal at J. E. Tate's for 25 cents.

Three varieties of early Irish potato seed at J. F. Moores.

Mrs. Strickland is receiving her new spring hats. They are nice and pretty.

Batted cotton for sale at E. E. Crismons. If you want bargains in dress goods and shoes, this is the place to go.

Prater & Son, not desiring to be in the dark any longer have secured the benefits of a street lamp near their place of business.

F. L. Reese is receiving his spring line of dry goods and notions. Also up to date line of gents furnishing goods, shoes, hats, etc.

Dr. N. F. Howard's neuralgia cure will be found for sale by The Dahlonega Drug Co. A 25c bottle will cure any case of neuralgia.

Marshal Harbison keeps a look out for fire during the cold windy nights until a very late hour. This gives our citizens much relief, but arrangements should be made for some one to be up all night.

The party that took shelter in the Methodist church Wednesday night while engaged in a dumb song got tangled up in the benches between 11 and 12 o'clock, causing a terrible racket for awhile.

A negro boy came down from White county with a load of fodder for sale of his own raising, for which he realized about two dollars per hundred. This beats lay around and picking on a banjo or guitar, like some do in Dahlonega, getting only a nickle now and then.

Coming at Copelands to-day is a large assortment of fish, Bologna sausage, pickled pigs feet, grape nuts, fresh yeast, buckwheat flour, fresh full cream cheese, Block's best soda crackers, Eagle condensed milk, shelled cocoanut, Libby's mince meat, prunes, corn starch, Block's extracts, &c. In fact anything kept in a first class up to date grocery line.

J. H. McGee informs us that his eyes are growing so weak that the physicians have advised him to do no more reading. We regret this very much as he is one of our most wide awake business men. However we will state that he still continues taking the Nugget which is read to him by his children, keeping him posted as to what is going on in the county.

Both the Baptist and Methodist ministers at this place, after being housed up with the lagrippe several days, are out again. The grip visits all alike. The preacher, printer, singer, high and low. Not even missing the haughty lady who wears the finest of silk and full feathered hats being no proud to touch the ground only in high places.

It was not Jim Elrod that got shot at Adline Elrod's reception the other day but Sam, his brother. A married man by the name of Cain, of Buford, came up as Amanda Elrod's escort, and every thing was pleasant until too much steam was gotten up by corn juice causing Will Elrod to turn his pistol loose and then leave out for Jackson county, while Cain returned to his wife and children in Hall.

J. E. Tate's big reduction and closing out sale is now on, who will sell you the following goods at the prices mentioned as long as they are in stock till the 15th of March for cash, to-wit: Good green coffee 10c per pound, best green coffee 12c. Celestial patent flour 5c quarter sack. Best country meal 90c. Meat 9c. Lard 10c. 3 pks oat meal 25c. 3 bvs oysters 25c. 500 yards calico now at 5c per yard. 20 pairs Brogan shoes $1.00. 50 pairs high cut ties strictly whole stock $1.25. 100 prs ladies nice fine shoes $1.00 to $1.25. 25 prs children shoes 40 to 50c. 50 prs Misses 60 to 80. 100 prs mens fine shoes $1.15 to $1.75.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard are in charge of Hall's Villa now.

We understand that H. L. Coffey, of Dahlonega is an applicant for U. S. Deputy Marshals place.

Some one relieved Jim Satterfield of a nice ham he had laid away for breakfast purposes, the other night.

Peter Cox, col., got so full of mountain dew last Sunday that his actions received the attention of the marshal.

The weather man gave us some of the coldest weather latter part of last week and first of this that we have had this winter.

As there is no way here to fight fire should it break out, a night watch ought to be put on duty for the next two months by the city fathers. The main idea is to discover a fire in time.

Mr. Ashley, while coming to town last Monday was thrown from his backboard and jolted up considerably, causing him to be quite sore. The horse ran on into town and stopped on the public square without any injury.

Notice.—All persons indebted to J. L. Daniel, deceased, will please come forward at once and settle with the undersigned at Cleveland, Ga., and those he was indebted to will please let it be known in the same way. CHAS. J. DANIEL.

Judge Hoff has had the jail roof and boxing painted and other improvements made on the county's property which adds greatly to the looks of the place, besides being beneficial, which ought to have been done long ago. It is not economy to put off needed work too long.

We led a light fall of snow last Saturday morning, not sufficient however, to cover the ground and accommodate that jealous hearted husband residing in Lumpkin county who it is said sprinkles meal around the house in the yard every time he leaves home at night so as to see if she has any visitors in his absence. In Gainesville the snow was two inches deep.

The paupers home now contains six inmates, most of them children. It is a common thing for a woman and her children to take refuge at this place during the wintry weather but when spring comes and the ground is ready for filling they leave without working a lick, matters not how strong they are, physically speaking. One of the female inmates was asked to do some work the other day and she said she'd be d—d if she struck a lick.

Judge Hoff has had the court room fitted up in good shape. He has provided seats for all which are raised so that a person sitting on the back ones can see the judge without standing up and every thing that is going on in front. The few seats were badly arranged before. We have seen persons lying asleep on some of the benches during court hours and the judge couldn't see them. Now such a nap will be apt to be expensive.

It seems that some of the boys in Crumby's district have been giving Rev. A. J. Edge much trouble by tearing down his fences. A large number of panels were torn down during Christmas and on Sunday night of last week a lot more were torn away and a high fence built across the road out of the rails. The old man felt satisfied that John Stargel, a son of Cicero Stargel, deceased was one of the guilty parties and did not hesitate to say so. On Wednesday night of last week as he was returning home he was overtaken in the road and accosted by John who placed his hand behind him like he had a pistol, so it is said, which caused Mr. Edge to lay aside his gospel doctrine and was going for the boy when two of John's friends stopped up and carried him away. Mr. Edge proposed to whip John in two minutes if they would take his pistol from him, but the proposition was not accepted.

Fresh fish and oysters three times a week at Howard & Thomas' market.

Rev. Wallace Rogers is to give a lecture at the college chapel Saturday night.

For the next few days you can get a good watch at a low down price, a nice assortment to select from. B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

Wood's Earliest potatoes, the best early potato on the market, and yellow Danvers and white "Silver skin" onion sets at J. H. McKees.

Cadet Gay, of Newton county, who fell and got hurt a few nights ago has become conscious but is not able to get out. His father is here with him.

We have a negro man in Dahlonega who wears specks only on Sundays when attending church. Surely he is not afraid the good Lord is coming to him and will try to slip up.

Alvenia Coffey, who is wanted in White county, was arrested in Dahlonega by sheriff Davis Monday night. Some time last year he carried a pistol while attending his step-mother's wedding and shot another negro during the time. That's all.

Long moustache Bill Crane and his son Ross were captured in an illicit distillery last Monday by Marshal Grizzle. The still and men were brought to town. The prisoners were bound over and carried to jail while the still was put away for future reference.

On the first day of April the postoffice at Dahlonega will be a third class office. W. P. Price, Jr., made bond to that effect last Monday as assistant and sent the same to the department so as to be ready. This is sufficient proof to show that the business of Dahlonega is increasing and the city growing.

One morning this week a letter addressed to a female of Dahlonega from J. F. H., Morganton, Ga., dated Feb. 18, was picked up on the streets. The writer stated in the most vulgar terms that he only made her a certain promise to accomplish his purpose and she could go now. Thus another woman has been deceived by listening to the deceitful tongue of a man. Hell is too good a place for such men.

Saturday night one of the colored Baptist brothers commenced taking on some whisky. Sunday at the church he had his feet washed and took the sacrament, who has been taking his toddy and tight eyes since, so says his wife. It may be that he got some of the "bread of life" lodged in his throat and is trying to wash it down with whisky, besides the liquid may have the negro from catching cold, frequently caused from wet feet.

Commissioner of Pensions, Mr. Lindsey, says that he is of the opinion that the applications of widows for pensions under the late act will be 3,000 or more. The appropriation is only $100,000 and will be inadequate to meet the demand. If it does the matter will be submitted by the commissioner to the governor who may cause the suspension of payment until the legislature convenes to make the necessary provisions for all, like was done some years ago, and no doubt some of these poor needy women will pass away before that time comes and get nothing.

Bill Dotson was arrested on a warrant last Monday, true bill having been returned at the term of Lumpkin Superior Court. He made bond. Many of our readers will remember the circumstances. Some months ago while under the influence of liquor Bill went over to Docie Becks, one of his old lovers residing in the outskirts of the city with his knife open. This alarmed the woman and she came to town for help for she had long since discarded Bill and been giving her attention to younger roosters. This Bill knew in two minutes if they would take his pistol from him, but the proposition was not accepted.

Mining Notes.

The stockholders of the Consolidated Co., held an annual meeting in Toledo, Ohio, last Wednesday but we have not had time to learn what was done before going to press.

M. A. H. Henderson has discovered a valuable silver and tin mine on one of his lots of land in this county. Just what the ore is worth we cannot say as this has not yet been made public.—Cleveland Courier.

Mr. Ashley informed us last week that it was his intention of commencing the operation of his dredge boat in the Chestatee river last Wednesday. This boat is located in a rich part of the gold belt, besides the owner thinks he has a way of saving the valuable black sand heretofore lost, causing it to attract no little attention.

It will be seen by referring to our advertising columns that another new mining scheme is on foot in this county, known as the Hix process. An application for a charter is being made by the gentlemen whose names appears in the ad., to be known as the Hix Gold and Extraction Co., capitalized at $8,000,000. The tests having already been made by this process are so satisfactory as to excite the attention of capitalists everywhere.

Dr. J. B. Rutherford and J. C. Adams, of Cincinnati, Ohio, after remaining a day or two in Dahlonega, returned home last Monday. They will return in a week or ten days to develop some mining property in which they are interested known as the Jones and Buffington lots, with an eye to working it if the development work shows up all right. The property has always been looked upon by miners as No. 1, and we trust that they will be successful in their undertaking.

Development work on the Capps and Bowen property is being pushed forward with a vim under the supervision of Mr. Maxwell, of Knoxville, and is showing up well. He has a sufficient force of miners to carry it on systematically. Work is progressing in three shafts, two of them old and the other a new one. Four tunnels are also being cut. The manager expects to make a thorough investigation, and if he finds good ore in sufficient quantities to pay for working the necessary machinery will be put up. If not nothing more will be done. We are glad to say that the developments so far are very satisfactory.

The foundation work for the big pump at the Crown Mountain pumping station on the Chestatee river is progressing nicely. The excavations are being carried down to bed rock so that the masonry pier will have a solid foundation necessary to a pump of that size and power. The reservoir, near the top of Crown Mountain, into which the 12 inch main will discharge is being rapidly dug out. The reservoir when completed will hold about 2,000,000 gallons of water—nearly a day's run of the pump, which will give a reserve storage capacity for operating the giants that take their water from the reservoir. The machinery for the mill is coming in rapidly and every thing is being done to further a systematic completion of the entire plant.

Mr. Breymann, vice president of the Consolidated Co., came in from the north on Thursday of last week and remained until Monday when he left to be present at the meeting of the Company in Toledo. Mr. Breymann informed us that he would return at once, who will quite likely then be able to give the mine his personal attention for some time. On to-day they will let out some contracts for running a couple of drifts in shaft No. 1. These drifts will be 7x8 feet, cut for the purpose of running to the Knight vein and taking ore out from the same. Other work will quite likely begin in a few days. Ore is still being taken from both the Knight and Pilewit veins from the tunnels running to the same.

THE Crown Mountain Gold Mining & Smelting Co.

The Crown Mountain properties are situated in the very heart of the Georgia gold belt and in the radiating center of all the leading gold veins of the Dahlonega district. They embrace what is believed to be the mother lode of the Appalachian Range.

The extensive and rich ore bodies in sight upon these properties assure long continued mining operations and the indisputable guarantee of the permanent and increasing value of the stock of "The Crown Mountain Co."

The prospectors of this company were the first to revive the mining interest in this district in 1896. After three years of careful and extensive examination of all the mines of the district of reputation as gold producers, and they had the choice of all, they selected the Crown Mountain combination as the ideal gold mine of the district which would yield or produce the most gold with the least expense. This opinion is shown by all the mining engineers, mining experts, miners and citizens of any standing in the district who are familiar with the properties. As an evidence of this we here state that more of the citizens of the town of Dahlonega and vicinity have taken stock in this company than have in all the other companies combined that have organized in this district.

The company is to be managed by practical business men who have given much of their time to mining and mining operations, and always with unvarying success.

Three years ago Mrs. Hortens Adams, of Boies, Idaho, went to a picnic in the mountains. The dinner was spread on a large flat rock. Being the widow of a miner, she knew good ore when she saw it. She quickly saw that the rock was rich in gold. The discovery took her appetite, but it didn't cause her to lose her head. She kept her secret until she could secure a claim, and have the ore analyzed. It proved to be good rock, assaying upwards of $60 a ton. A few days ago she sold out her interest in the mine for a quarter of a million dollars, and is going to Europe to spend some of the money.

Four hundred Trenton, N. J., girls have signed a pledge that they will not marry a man who touches a drop of liquor—and they include beer and cider as liquors. That is, they decline to "marry a man to save him," because so many girls have wrecked their lives because of a missionary spirit in that direction.

The quill of the Canton Advance is back in the hands of Ben E. Perry and the paper is worth reading now. He took charge of the Advance just in time to save it. It had almost reached the jumping off place.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe. George W. Waitt, of South Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturer of an honest medicine." For sale by The Matthews Drug Co.

It will be some time yet before those widows entitled to pensions under the new act of the Georgia legislature will get their money. Pension Commissioner Lindsay states that applications for pensions under this act must be filed in the ordinary's office by March 15th, and should be sent to Atlanta by April 1st. Commissioner Lindsay will devote the month of April to the consideration of these claims. Marietta Journal.

Frank Shaw, who killed a deputy sheriff in Vermont, appealed his case, and the Supreme Court of that State has just affirmed the decision of the lower court, which says he must be confined at hard labor in the State Penitentiary for two years, after which he must be confined in a solitary dungeon for three months, and then be led to the scaffold and hung.

SGROFULA AND ITS AWFUL HORRORS

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

A Grand Old Lady Gives Her Experience.

Mrs. Thankful Orilla Hurd lives in the beautiful village of Brighton, Livingston Co., Mich. This venerable and highly respected lady was born in the year 1812, the year of the great war, in Hebron, Washington Co., New York. She came to Michigan in 1840, the year of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too." All her faculties are excellently preserved, and possessing a very retentive memory, her mind is full of interesting reminiscences of her early life, of the early days of the State of Michigan and the interesting and remarkable people she has met, and the stirring events of which she was a witness. But among her varied and manifold recollections are more numerous and worthy of attention than are her experiences in the use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Hurd inherited a tendency, and predisposition to scrofula, that terribly destructive blood taint which has cursed time and is cursing the lives of thousands and marking thousands more as victims of the death angel. Transmitted from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family in one form or another. It may make its appearance in dreadful running sores, in unsightly swellings in the neck or groin, or in eruptions of varied forms. Attacking the mucous membrane, it often is the prime cause of constipation.

Speaking of her case, Mrs. Hurd says: "I was troubled for many years with a bad skin disease. My arms and limbs would break out in a mass of sores, discharging yellow matter. My neck began to swell and became very unsightly in appearance. My body was covered with scrofulous eruptions. My eyes were also greatly inflamed and weakened, and they pained me very much. My blood was in a very bad condition and my head ached severely at frequent intervals, and I had no appetite. I had sores also in my ears. I was in a miserable condition. I had tried every remedy that had been recommended, and doctor after doctor had failed. One of the best physicians in the state told me I must die of scrofulous consumption, as internal abscesses were beginning to form. At length was told of Dr. Johnston, of Detroit, and, thing else, as I had no faith in it, and greatly to my agreeable surprise, I began to grow better. You can be sure I kept on taking it. I took a great many bottles. But I steadily improved until I became entirely well. All the marks of scrofula, all the bad symptoms disappeared. I gained perfect health, and I have never been troubled with scrofula since. Of course an old lady since then, and I firmly believe that JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is the greatest blood purifier and the best medicine in the wide world, both for scrofula and as a spring medicine." This remarkably interesting old lady did not like to be more than sixty, and she repeated several times, "I believe my life was saved by JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA."

The prodigious growth of the military expenses of this country is beginning to become alarming. Representative McEllan in a speech in the house a few days ago showed that the regular appropriation bills of this year, for the army, fortifications and the Military Academy, aggregate in round numbers $120,000,000. It is expected that the deficiency for the current year will add $10,000,000 to this. The appropriations for pensions and kindred expenses growing out of previous wars are $154,000,000. The navy department wants $180,000,000.

RELIEVED WOMEN

has brought permanent relief to a million suffering women who were on their way to premature graves. Mrs. Mitchell was fast declining in health, when Wine of Cardui performed a "wonderful cure" in her case. She suffered with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of this menapausal trouble supplanted her vitality until she was a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence.

WINE OF CARDUI
is within the reach of all. Women who try it are relieved. Ask your druggist for a bottle of Wine of Cardui, and do not take a substitute if tendered you.

Mrs. Willie Mitchell, South Georgia, N. C., writes: "I had been a great sufferer with falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my nerves were every week for two months and more very painful. My husband advised me to try Wine of Cardui and I took it. I am now the same as I was when I first began, and I am restored to perfect health."

A Kind Man's Cow Disappears.

"The editor of this paper is out of a cow, or rather his cow is out. She is a red Jersey with mouse-chewed edges and a pair of large, expressive brown eyes. There was no hair on the end of her tail, where hair ought to be. She wore it off trying to pick flies off the editor's pompadour and delivering uppercuts under his chin. What tail remains still has a rotary motion, from force of habit. She left home last Sunday night and nothing has been heard from her since. She had been treated considerably, allowed to land on us at pleasure, kick the bucket of milk through the hay loft, eat up the strawberry vines and even come home without the wrong sort of a calf, without protest, and for this reason the motive for her departure is a mystery. She moved in the best cow circles in Paris, was attended by an amiable small boy who didn't smoke cigarettes, and had no possible cause for complaint. We never struck her with anything bigger than a scantling, but she was of a shrinking and sensitive disposition, with a most unusual appetite. She can't have eloped, for our consent and blessing were ready at any time.—Paris (Mo.) Mercury.

R-markable Cure of Rheumatism.
From the Vindicator, Rathfordton, N. C.

The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the remarkable result in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts affected and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. Dr. Howard Speaks More of the Proposed R. R.

Ed. Nugget:—
Your views suggested in your paper for a new railroad line from Atlanta to Dahlonega and on to Rabun Gap has excited attention all along the line. The Clarksville paper expresses a wish that the road be extended to Franklin, N. C., which move we would approve, if the plan agreed with the Atlanta people and other projectors of the road. Near Franklin, N. C., are some of the finest deposits of conuadrum being worked that we know of. This belt extends on through Rabun, White, Lumpkin, etc., wherever the soapstone is deposited. And would come in close proximity to the great Yonah mountain lying between Nacoochee and Cleveland, which mountain is said to be a pile of granite stone. All along the line are deposits of asbestos, mica and large veins of magnetic and other iron deposits as heretofore stated.

We trust those that may feel interested in Atlanta and along this suggested line, by the opening of spring may effect a temporary organization, and make a thorough examination of this suggested railroad route, and let the friends of this scheme fall not out by the way nor blockade the route.

N. F. HOWARD.

From the records of the Federal Court, as will be seen elsewhere, the people of Union are more temperate than in Lumpkin or any of the adjoining counties.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL
WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME & SODA

will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

To purchase, control, operate, license and manufacture any and all apparatus or appliances embodied in said Hicks process for extracting metals from ores by heat and amalgamation together with all improvements thereupon, which have been or may be patented in the United States; and to acquire Letters Patent and patent rights therefor, and sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

C. To purchase, control, operate, license, sell and manufacture any and all apparatus and appliances which may be of a kind or nature to said process or which may be used in conjunction with said process or which may be employed in the developing perfecting, or operating said process and likewise to acquire Letters Patent and patent rights therefor, and to sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

D. To purchase or otherwise acquire ores for treatment by said process or by any of the appliances or apparatus hereinbefore mentioned and set forth.

E. To erect, install, equip, operate, maintain, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of plants and works for use and employment of said process in the business of extracting metals from ores.

(4) They desire the right to promote and organize other and subsidiary corporations having in view the accomplishment of the various objects above set forth and to that end to subscribe to and purchase the capital stock of such subsidiary corporations, having always in view that the subscription to and purchase of such capital stock shall in no wise be for the purpose or have the effect of defeating or lessening competition, or of encouraging monopoly in their respective businesses, and no contract made with them shall have or be intended to have such effect.

(5) They desire the right to do all such things and exercise all such powers as are necessary and proper in the conduct of their business and in effectuating the various objects of the incorporation.

(6) They desire the right to contract for, lease buy and hold such real estate as may be useful or proper in the conduct of their business and to sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise encumber the same; to issue bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness as the interests of the corporation may suggest and its Board of Directors may determine.

(7) They desire, as such corporation, to have the right to sue and be sued; to make and use a common seal; to have and prescribe such regulations and by-laws for its government as may be needful or proper and not contrary to law; to constitute and elect a Board of Directors and such officers as are usual and as may be prescribed by such by-laws, and they further desire all the general powers and privileges which may be conferred upon and are incident to corporations of said State of Georgia, which by law are characterized by the Superior Courts.

(8) The capital stock of said corporation shall be ($3,000,000) three million dollars divided into shares of one dollar each. And they desire the right to issue said capital stock, upon the organization of said corporation, as fully paid up and non-assessable stock; to take in full payment thereof an assignment and transfer of the right and title to a certain invention of the said Thomas H. Hicks, being an improvement in amalgamators for extracting amalgamable metals from their ores, patent having been applied for said invention on March 23, 1900, and Letters Patent having been issued therefor from the Patent Office of the United States on the 30th day of October 1900, said Letters Patent being numbered 660,774.

(9) The principal office of said corporation shall be at Dahlonega, said county of Lumpkin, State of Georgia. Petitioners desire the right to establish and maintain a branch office at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and such others as the stockholders may from time to time elect to establish.

Wherefore petitioners pray to be made a body corporate under the name and style aforesaid, and that a charter be granted them conferring the rights, privileges and powers herein set forth and petitioned for.

PRICE & CHARTERS.
Petitioners attorneys,
Filed in office February 26, 1901,
J. H. MOORE, C. S. C.

GEORGIA—LUMPKIN COUNTY:
I, J. H. Moore Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, do certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the original petition for incorporation of "Hicks Gold and Silver Extraction Company," as the same appears of file in said office.

Witness my official signature this February 26th, 1901.
J. H. MOORE,
Clerk Superior Court.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 8, 1901.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Possums are worth 35 and 40 cents apiece in Atlanta.

The inauguration of President McKinley was a big affair, even if we were not present.

J. H. Hunt has purchased the Arlington hotel in Gainesville from Governor Candlar.

A boy was arrested in Atlanta the other day and carried back to Alabama, charged with killing his mother at Birmingham.

Mon. F. C. Tate is sending out his annual amount of free seeds again this year which proves that he is going to be a candidate for re-election to congress.

Five hundred roast sheds are being erected by the Tennessee Copper Company at Ducktown. These sheds will roast about 100,000 tons of ore in sixty days.

Solicitor General Polhill committed suicide in Macon last Sunday by shooting himself. He was found dead in his office with no explanation why he did it.

It is said there are 15 or 20 female candidates for the position of state librarian. The opinion is expressed that the governor, notwithstanding his well known gallantry, will appoint a lawyer, since it is a law library.

If Col. W. A. Charters' aspirations are higher, it is more than likely that Charles L. Bass will be in the next race for Solicitor General. Charters has good oratorical powers and would fill the position with honor. - Clarksville Record.

Athens is now ahead of Atlanta. She has a negro who swallowed a rat the other night while sleeping with his mouth open. The rat probably thought that it was entering some old cave, liking the place so well that it required a physician to bring it back up.

The remains of Ensign Welborn C. Wood, who was killed in the Philippine Island in Sept. 1899, while in charge of the United States gun boat Urdaneta in an engagement with the insurgents, were carried to Jerusalem in Pickens county last Saturday and interred in the family burial ground at that place by the side of his mother. - Cherokee Advance.

A young negro woman reformer from Michigan has announced that she will start on a lecture tour in a few days, and will advocate a crusade against the white people of the south. She says she will urge the negroes to rise and kill the whites after the plans advocated by old John Brown, of Kansas. It is useless to say that she won't go very far.

A negro entered the residence of Charles A. Buchanan, on Spring Street, in Atlanta during his absence, placed a pistol at the head of Mrs. Buchanan, who was alone, forced her to cook breakfast for him, drank whisky from a bottle, forced the lady to give up all money in the house, tied her to a bed, stuck a lighted match to the house and fled. Wasn't he a mean devil? This occurred on Monday.

Atlanta is still in it. The other morning when her big fire broke out a drunken man was brought from a burning livery house and placed on the street having nothing on except a ladies gown where he lay helpless on the frozen earth for hundreds of people to view until carried away. A man in a gown was very attractive to both sexes and enough to cause Mrs. Nation to blush had she been there. When the Markham House block was on fire some four or five years ago one of the females of a "fancy" house ran out and seated herself at a piano in the middle of the street and played and sang I don't care a d—n while the fire was reducing the block to ashes, but she had on her clothes.

Gold Miners' Annual Meeting.

The meeting of the stockholders of the Dahlonega Consolidated Gold Mining & Milling company, of Georgia, at the Boody house yesterday, was well attended. The following gentlemen were present: Toledo—D. C. Shaw, Geo. H. Breyman, Vice President and General Manager, F. G. Thomson, F. W. Bainbridge, J. M. Bloomer, J. P. Coates, Ford Welch, George E. Osceola, F. E. Ikes, W. E. Hetrie, Herman Miller, Ed Anderson, W. A. Shearer, M. G. Griffin, Walter Pickens, W. W. Miles, L. S. Berry, August Scherff, O. C. Reed, Dr. R. Bell, M. Murphy, C. B. Hadden.

From outside were President J. W. Adams, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Dr. H. O. Walker, Detroit; Mark Hopkin, E. C. Reor, Russ S. Jenks, St. Clair, Mich.; S. S. Shitt, Spencerville, Ind.; Jas. Sanders, Petrolia, Ont.; Louis Siebert, Wm. M. Fisher, R. H. Humphrey, Columbus, O.; F. R. Adams, J. G. Rosenthal, Delaware, O.; Dick Townsend, Fort Wayne, Ind.; D. S. Williams, Morenci, Mich.; M. A. Hadden, Catawba Island, O.; Harry Conant, Monroe, Mich. The gentleman present represented nearly $4,000,000 of the capital stock of the company.

President Adams stated the progress of the company up to the present time. He said that the development of ore bodies since the last meeting was not only satisfactory but surprising. The underground work known as deep mining is making excellent progress. He spoke of the Hicks process of amalgamation, which from present indications, will supersede all others in saving values, and which the Consolidated is preparing to put in. Three shafts are now down below water level, and crosscutting has begun. He said that under the Hicks process the most refractory ores in the world had been tested, and that no ore had yet been tested that the values had not been recovered.

Mr. Adams' report was very satisfactory, and at the close a resolution was introduced by Mr. Bloomer, thanking the officers and the executive board for their untiring efforts. After the transaction of some special business in executive session, the meeting adjourned.

It was announced that the Hicks company had a plant installed at Fort Wayne, Ind., and that a commercial test on a large scale would be made in about two weeks. - Toledo News.

For some time a man not residing very far from Dahlonega has been selling liquor here, sending his boy to do the retailing. Recently the little fellows liquor was stolen, causing him to be more particular since. What can a man expect of a boy who is learned to violate the law while in his teens? Though many in this country are guilty of it.

Last Saturday Judge Huff was somewhat astounded when Mary and Ananda Elrod, two white women, appeared in his office stating that they had come for the purpose of getting their sister Adeline out of jail, who the sheriff refuses to release on a straw bond. It is not the custom for females to practice in the courts of Lumpkin county, besides they had no habeas corpus papers to present to the Judge. This being the case the official told the girls that he could not force the sheriff to take certain persons on Adeline's bond as he was the judge in such matters. Adeline was put in jail because she had let John Green win her affections, so believed the grand jury. John is a very homely looking negro, poor and as black as the ace of spades, but his pleasant smiles and winning ways caused this white woman to think as much of him as if he was worth a million dollars, smoked 25 cent cigars, wore a derby and was as white as snow. This love "behind the scenes" has been going on for a long time, but every sweet has his bitter and Judge Estes will likely bring this pleasant affair to an end next court.

We are glad to state that Governor Chandler has had a conference with Attorney Terrell and several leading members of the legislature and has made arrangement to make up the $3,000 shortage in the pension claims, by taking it from other funds and replacing the same later on. This will be joyful news to the widows of Georgia.

EXECUTION'S SALE.

Georgia, Lumpkin county. By virtue of an order of the court of ordinary of Clarke county, granted at the November Term, 1900, of said court there will be sold at public outcry on the first Tuesday in April, 1901, at the court house in said county, between the usual hours of sale, to the highest bidder the following interest in real estate, situated in said state and county, to-wit: An undivided one-half (1-2) interest in lot Nos. 799, 1240, 1241, 1242, 1243, 1244, 1245, 1246, 1247, 1248, 1249, 1250, 1251, 1252, 1253, 1254, 1255, 1256, 1257, 1258, 1259, 1260, 1261, 1262, 1263, 1264, 1265, 1266, 1267, 1268, 1269, 1270, THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 8, 1901

Good four room house for rent by Anderson & Jones.

Frank Meaders sold his choice horse the other day for $260. It pays to raise good stock.

W. P. Price, Jr., has lost a doorknob. The finder will confer a favor by returning it to him.

Prof. W. S. Stewart, of Dahlonega, attended the inauguration of President McKinley this week.

Remember you can get college stationery at the NUGGET office nice, neat and cheap.

G. D. Bruce spent some time on the Blue Ridge last week taking views of different parts of the mountain.

The farmers of Union county have brought over many loads of Irish potatoes and other farm products this week.

If some of you high standing people would pay your debts more promptly it would cause fewer remarks to be made about you.

Child Guy, who was hurt some two weeks ago is well enough to sit up and begin to talk intelligently. His father is still with him.

Your attention is directed to the advertisement of the Executors sale of Wm. Rutherford's interest in several valuable lots of land in this county.

It is said that a secret wedding of two college students occurred at Cone Creek falls last Sunday. The ordinary issued the license but is sworn to secrecy.

M. A. Sperlin, the laundryman, is located in the building near old tin yard, where he is ready to do your washing, dyeing and cleaning on short notice, strictly for cash.

Last Sunday we were two hot and sweated in Dahlonega, and by Wednesday we were cold and freezing, the thermometer getting down to seven the latter morning.

The manager of one company in Dahlonega informed us that he paid out over one thousand dollars for freights last week. Oh how bad we need that railroad from Atlanta.

The telephone system here, which connects Dahlonega with the outside world, furnishes the college boys much pleasure when they can step into the office and talk with their parents many miles away.

Occasionally some of the students after attending the college awhile, spend most of the money sent them by their relatives foolishly and slip off leaving their board and other bills unpaid. This is a bad beginning. Even if such boys had an education it would do them no good.

C. N. Fitts and J. M. Brooksher have a large number of fruit trees two years old, for sale, and are going to make a delivery in Dahlonega on the 27th inst. Persons wishing any trees made with this delivery can call on or address C. N. Fitts Randa, Ga., or J. M. Brooksher, Dahlonega, Ga.

We gather from White's statistics of Georgia some very interesting information about Dahlonega in 1849 as follows: Town incorporated in 1858, and became the seat of public buildings in 1855. U. S. Branch Mint cost $70,000, and the machinery $80,000, and Dr. Singleton was the first superintendent appointed by General Jackson. Population of Dahlonega about 1,000. It has ten stores, four groceries, two capital hotels, three churches, Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian, one market house, one engine house, one academy, one Masonic Hall, one printing office, in which the Dahlonega Watchman is published, &c. The amount of goods sold is stated to be $75,000 per annum. Gold is often found in the court house square, particularly after showers, and little boys often pick up pieces of gold weighing from 1/4 of a dw. to one dw.

White multiplying onions at J. F. Moores.

Examine the date on your paper and see if your time is out, nons residents.

Mrs. J. Martin, of Hall county, is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Moore, in Dahlonega.

For the next few days you can get a good watch at a low down price, a nice assortment to select from. B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

Capt. Eugene Mayne is down at the Battle Branch with a force of hands making roads preparatory to operating this well known mine.

F. G. Thomson, secretary and treasurer of the Consolidated Co., has been absent two or three days from the city this week on business.

Anderson & Jones still lead the clothing procession. No use going to Gainesville when for cash they will save you big money. Examine their stock and you will be convinced.

The business of the John C. Clark estate was wound up by administrator Allen making a deed to four of the boys to certain property last Monday, who now asks to be dismissed in a legal manner.

If a certain married lady here could have taken a little stroll the other day and seen her husband sitting up cross legged swapping words of love with another married woman, she would likely have been mad.

It is said that a certain fellow slipped in home right recently and found a man's arm around his wife's neck, which made him so mad that he threw a stick of wood at the owner of the arm. How easy it is for some folks to get mad.

It is our opinion that all papers publishing the ad. of the Nervia Medical Co., Chicago, will get nothing for it. For some time they paid no attention to statements sent them. At last we wrote them that we believed the concern was a fraud and would publish it so at once if they didn't send us our money. The reply was that they had been burned out and all papers and records were destroyed, but would soon send out a man and settle up. We have removed their ad, however, and put it in its place one for a party we know.

J. E. Tate's big reduction and closing out sale is now on, who will sell you the following goods at the prices mentioned as long as they are in stock till the 15th of March for cash, to-wit: Good green coffee 10c per pound, best green coffee 12c. The city council met last Monday night to make preparations to raise the required amount of funds to run the city during the present year. After appointing a committee to ascertain what amount was necessary to carry on the public school the body adjourned till the Wednesday evening following after transacting some business of little importance. On Wednesday evening after meeting it was decided not to assess any special taxes this year but raise the money by general assessment as usual. The committee appointed to do this work is composed of T. F. Jackson and G. McGuire. Before adjournment it was ordered that Water Street be opened through Capt. Hall's lot fronting the Nugget office within sixty days. So now, the mayor tells us, the gates of Dahlonega are thrown open to peddlers, shopmen and every one else to do business here free of charge, the council being equally divided on specific taxes. It will take $400 more than last year, requiring taxes to be about 80 cts. on the hundred.

Call and see our 10c lace remnants. B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

A. F. Stow takes charge of Wimp's mill, we understand.

Dr. Looper, well known in Dahlonega, died at his home in Gainesville a few days ago.

Sweet potatoes only brought 40 cents per bushel here Monday while fodder sold at $2.15 per hundred.

Turner Quillian, of Hall county, was in the city last Monday. So was J. Carter, the well known flour man.

Dahlonega's business still continues to improve and we are all enjoying better times now than at any period before in many years.

On last Saturday morning cadet H. A. Fleming, of Cherokee county, received the sad intelligence of his father's death which occurred the night previous. The young man left for home at once.

Farmers appearances on the streets are less frequent now. They are all at work on their farms preparing to feed all the rest who are dependent upon them. Without farmers the world could not prosper.

Col. W. P. Price returned from a trip to Washington City and Baltimore last Saturday afternoon, accompanied by his wife, who has been spending some time at her daughters, Mrs. Carrie Wilson in Baltimore.

A committee from the board of trustees of the N. G. A. College are having a vineyard started on the college grounds. The vines were donated to the institution some time ago by Judge Gabor, of Marietta, Ga.

Last Sunday was a lovely spring like day. So much so that while seated in the office we commenced singing "Gentle Annie," in a beautiful tone we thought when a lady stepped to the door and wanted to know if we were taking the grip.

One teamster last week was determined not to violate any city ordinance in Dahlonega in reference to bringing in rye liquor. He went and got the express package and the boys drank it up before getting here. There is no ordinance covering this.

We dropped into the council room last Monday and saw Henry Elrod in charge of Marshal Harbison. An empty whisky flask on the mantel told the tale. Its contents being emptied into Harry's stomach Saturday night caused him to get in the calaboose. One and cost.

Jim Tate got to trade with a person last Monday residing twenty miles from Dahlonega, in Union county, who stated that his ad. in the NUGGET had induced her to come. It pays to advertise, especially in the NUGGET, which is read by hundreds of people both far and near every week, and don't you forget it.

Remington Brothers, advertising agents of New York, are sending out a proposition to publishers to insert Lyon Coffee ad. twenty inches and a half long, for which they propose to give $13.50 for its insertion 26 times. We will make us a wooden bill and eat with the chickens before we will work for nothing. Therefore it won't appear in the NUGGET without a good deal more money.

The boys have a good joke on young Squire Grizzle of Porter Springs district. He does not wish to marry any couple, but they have made him believe that it is compulsory and a part of his official duty. The other day when Jim Tate and a young lady drove up to his gate the Squire was told by one mischievous person present that it was a certain young couple who had been engaged for some time come for him to perform the ceremony. The Squire didn't wait to see or go to look but made for the nearest place to the woods on double quick time and was soon out of sight.

And still they come—new subscribers.

Last Sunday was a fine spring like day, permitting every one to attend divine services who desired.

Dr. H. C. Welch's office presents a much nicer appearance since receiving the attention of the carpenter.

There is certainly a bright future in store for old Dahlonega. Times are good now, but we look for much better during the coming spring.

Willis Woody, once a resident of this county, writes from his home in Vinita I. T., that corn is 30 cents per bushel, meal 40, oats 35 and wheat 75. Wood is $1.00 per load, wages from 75 to 1.00 per day and man and team $1.50.

Mrs. Aiken and Miss Mailer gave the young men of the city a dance last Friday night in the old store house belonging to and formerly occupied by the Consolidated Co. It was lit up by electricity causing everything to look rich, rare and racy.

We were invited into Dr. Stow's building on Main Street last Friday, which is receiving the finishing touch of the mechanies. It is three stories high. The first and third floors are already occupied and the Doctor will soon be in the other. It is a well arranged, very neat and convenient.

Persons having express in Gainesville can have it brought up promptly by Goley Townsend at very reasonable figures. And any one wishing to catch the 3 o'clock train who are not too proud to ride in a wagon can be carried through to Gainesville by him on time. Orders can be left at Nugget office.

Some of the blockaders are getting a little shyer than common. Saturday night they were located off from town and those loving whisky had to go after it, being a little more inconvenient to purchase than usual. The city marshal made an inspection but didn't succeed in locating them in time.

Last Saturday, while Dr. Howard was intending to go into the store of the Dahlonega Drug Co., kept by his son, being blind he missed his way and stepped into the cellar door of the beef market, but fortunately persons standing close caught him before his head struck the steps below, causing his injuries to be very slight.

Poor Peter Peck, residing a few miles out in the country, had his modesty shocked a few days ago by two intoxicated women appearing in the road near his home who went through the high kicking performance. Peter has made lots of pretty bad blockade liquor in by gone days but he never stiller any mean enough to make woman do this way.

John Holcomb and Oscar Roberts, two beardless boys, were arrested by Marshal Harbison last Saturday night while they were intoxicated taking in the town and firing a pistol occasionally, seated in a buggy, driving very rapidly. A pistol was found in the possession of Holcomb. They were fined each $1.00 and cost and told to sin no more. Both lost their jobs and are gone.

Deputy Sheriff Jap Williams went into the country to arrest Bill Crane the other day on a warrant charging him with selling liquor. When he appeared at the door Bill was absent while his wife sat persuing a Baptist minute. Upon being asked where her husband was Mrs. Crane said he was from home, still eluding to the little book. The officer asked several questions but received little attention by the lady. She seemed interested in the proceedings of the Baptists gathering. As his excuse for his presence he stated that he wanted to get two gallons of liquor, "I can let you have it," was the quick response of Mrs. Crane who laid up her little book at once. Jap saw that he was in it and his only way to get out was to say he didn't want to pay her price, $1.50 per gallon.

Mrs. J. B. Hatfield, of Monticello, Ga., is up on a visit to relatives.

Since the mayor caused the flow of Kentucky rye in Dahlonega to cease some blind tigers have increased the price of their corn juice to 40 cents a pint.

A merchant told us the other day that a three line ad. in the NUGGET recently caused him to sell over $8.00 worth of the article. "Those ladies so fond of beans should make it known in this way so as to get a larger number to select from."

We received a message the other day stating that it is a slim chance for a newspaper borrower to get to heaven, matters not if it is a church member. The reason is if they are too stingy to enjoy life on earth by spending just a little money, that they couldn't do so above for fear that a collection might be taken up to help defray the expenses of fitting up a place of so much pleasure and happiness.

Capt. F. W. Hall and lady, of Dahlonega, who are at Lake Worth, Florida, are now enjoying summer like weather, having nothing to prevent them from being happy. We received a letter from the Captain of the 26th ult., telling us what a nice garden he has. He had been eating lettuce and radishes then for more than a week, besides having tomatoes and beans in bloom. Florida is certainly a lovely country and a great resort for people having plenty of means. Of course a poor person without a penny cannot enjoy life much any where. Fish are plentiful. Joe Jefferson, the celebrated comedian, is catching from 250 to 1,000 pounds each day for the fun of the thing. There are fifty boats in the business, says the Captain, one boat catching four thousand pounds, two weeks ago, crowding the vessels so that they could not all be shipped north, which sold to families at one cent per pound at home. The Captain says that Florida is the Eden of the present day and thousands of people are flocking there. Two hotels on the coast with a capacity of 2,000 are filled to overflowing and more are going.

A few days ago Lew Christy, went to work at the Findley to open up the shoot which has produced many thousand dollars since it was first discovered years ago. The metal lies in large pockets containing much gold. Christy assisted in taking out the last one several years ago while it belonged to Capt. F. W. Hall, leased to a nonresident of this country by the name of King, who took out a large fruit jar nearly full and left for other parts without paying near all the rent on this large amount of metal. After striking the shoot a short time before his lease expired he kept the discovery a secret to all outsiders, and tried to get his lease extended but the owner refused to comply with his request. So he drove on in a different direction until his lease was out, at the same time telling Christy that it might be that he would be able to get to work it himself some time and it would be a good idea for him to mark the place, which he did by driving in a piece of iron, and coming out with Mr. King has not been in the tunnel since until recently. Others have tried to find the vein since, but drove forward leaving it farther every effort made. After Witt & Campbell secured a six months lease on the property from the Consolidated Co. Mr. Christy related the facts and told them he could find it again soon and got permission to try it, being the first time he has had an opportunity since vacating the tunnel many years ago. After pumping out the water the first pop shot made fine ore showing much gold was knocked out, and many eyes are turned that way expecting a several thousand dollar pocket to be struck every day.

Mining Notes.

Hons Bruce and McAfee took a little outing Monday down at and around the Betz and saw the big clean up at this mine 1,000 dwts. in the amalgam.

Col. J. W. H. Underwood has recently been appointed receiver for W. A. Danforth Company in White county, who we suppose will continue the operations of the Loud mine.

The Ashley boat commenced operation last week in the Chestnut river below the mouth of Yahoola creek. Many people from Dahlonega have been over to see it. The machinery works like a charm and good results are expected as former prospecting has shown that there are much gold in the stream besides being on the hills and in the valleys on either side of it.

We made a little trip down to the Crown Mountain mill last Sunday and were very much surprised at the amount of work done since our last visit. This time we found a large structure about ready for the machinery being received at the place for fifty nine hundred pound stamps. Several of the batteries have arrived and being slid down the mountain ready to be put into position. The mill house is cheap but durable. No unnecessary work is being done at the mill or about the mine just for a display. The visitor can see at once that it is in charge of practical men who are preparing to make money by digging it out of the mountain, where the rich gold bearing ore is not to hunt but has already been found.

Mr. Howe, of Chicago, who has been here for some time looking over the gold fields of Lumpkin county, has been giving the mining property over on the Chestnut river belonging to Price & Charters and others his especial attention, being engaged in testing to ascertain the cost of turning the river at one point for about half a mile. If this is done he will be most certain to strike the celebrated Boley Fields vein, and have much territory to work in. He is drilling down all along the proposed route of the river to see how much rock will be in the way. The deepest point is fifty feet, where rock was struck at forty, but its magnitude is not known yet. It may only be a small ledge. Holes are being drilled nearer together now so as to gain this information.

Our prediction some months ago that the native miners understood best the workings of the gold fields of Georgia have proven to be true—especially here. All they liked was the money to purchase suitable machinery to handle unexplored ore when reached. Instead of sinking expensive shafts they would follow the veins on an incline, making something every day, which is very encouraging to the minor and those interested. Col. Hand made this mine pay and so did Frank Moore the Singleton, and Huff and Crissan did likewise the Lockhart. The Consolidated Co. have tried mine of the west and copper mine diggers of Tennessee and the results show that the old Lumpkin county miner, having his way, have accomplished for the Company the most good at the least expense.

The weekly clean ups at the Findley by Witt and Campbell continue to increase in richness. Last Saturday they got twenty-five pennyweights in nuggets besides much fine gold. The largest nugget weighed ten pennyweights and fourteen grains and was certainly a beauty. This mine is not worked on the style suggested here of late by some western miners—sinking large expensive shafts in pretty places—but the veins are followed and as little dead stuff removed as possible, which plan has proved the most beneficial yet introduced in this country. Few mines here worked under the direction of native miners have failed to pay well until sulphurets were struck. Having no way to handle them until recently caused many mines to have to be abandoned.

THE Crown Mountain Gold Mining & Milling Co.

The Crown Mountain properties are situated in the very heart of the Georgia gold belt and is in the radiating center of all the leading gold veins of the Dahlonega district. They embrace what is believed to be the mother lode of the Appalachian Range.

The extensive and rich ore bodies in sight upon these properties assure long continued mining operations and the indispensable guarantee of the permanent and increasing value of the stock of "The Crown Mountain Co."

The projectors of this company were the first to revive the mining interest in this district in 1896. After three years of careful and exhaustive examination of all the mines of the district of reputation as gold producers, and they had the choice of all, they selected the Crown Mountain combination as the ideal gold mine of the district which would yield or produce the most gold with the least expense. This opinion is shown by all the mining engineers, mining experts, miners and citizens of any standing in the district who are familiar with the properties. As an evidence of this we here state that more of the citizens of the town of Dahlonega and vicinity have taken stock in this company than have in all the other companies combined that have organized in this district.

The company is to be managed by practical business men—who have given much of their time to mining and milling operations, and always with unvarying success.

The present directory is for the most part composed of men who have had much experience in the mining enterprises, and under its efficient and economical management, and by reason of a visible gold supply that is practically inexhaustible, an investment in the stock of this company is undoubtedly safe. The capitalization of the company is not commensurate with the visible productiveness of the properties and is meagre compared with the capitalization of other justly celebrated mines in the district, but the management believe it will be able to make the stock worth above par.

We invite all prospective investors to make a personal inspection of the mines. We also invite them to examine all the other mines in the district—compare the quality and quantity of the ore and the facilities for economically treating the same. We have no fears of where the choice will fall.

Until further notice of advance prices, the stock of this company will be sold at the minimum rate of 50.00 per share. For further information apply to J. F. or J. H. Moore, Dahlonega, Ga., or Donovon & McCab, 10 & 12 West Spring Street, Columbus, Ohio, or Gen. Warner, Marietta, Ohio.

Taking Other People's Mail.

Those persons who have been in the habit of taking other people's mail from the postoffice and failing to give it to the one to whom it is addressed, or to return it to the postoffice, should know that they are liable to severe punishment.

The new postoffice ruling has just gone into effect, imposing a fine of $500 or one year's imprisonment on any one who, through carelessness or otherwise, takes mail not belonging to him from the office and fail to return it immediately. This refers to newspapers as well as to letters and other valuable mail. People should examine their mail when taking it from the postoffice, before leaving the building. To say it was the postmaster's fault will cut no figure under this ruling. It will be your fault if you do not return it, and you will be the one to suffer.—Marietta Journal.

"Two Dutchmen, traveling together, took up camp for the night. Being tired, they soon fell asleep. After having slept for some time, one of them was awakened by a thunder storm. He rose in his fright, crying that the Judgment day had come. 'Lie down, lie down, you fool!' said his companion; 'do you think de shudgment day would come in de night?'"

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

I congratulate the manufacturer of an honest medicine." For sale by The Matthews Drug Co.

Dr. C. A. Ryder, the dentist, who used to visit Dahlonega is very inconvenient to his work judging from an ad. in the Signal. He moved from Gainesville to Athens several months ago, but still keeps his chair in Gainesville according to the advertisement. If a fellow went down to Gainesville to have the Doctor pull a tooth it would take a long time.

A dressed duck sold in the Chicago market not long since was found to have a gold nugget in its craw to the value of $25, and there has been much curiosity to know where that particular duck was raised.—Ex. Quite likely this was a Lumpkin county duck. Some of the beautiful nuggets here are large and look like yellow grains of corn and it may be that the duck got deceived in the "food" it was eating in this way.

SGORFULA AND ITS AWFUL HORRORS

Johnston's Sarsaparilla
CURED BY A MOST WONDERFUL CURE.

A Grand Old Lady Gives Her Experience.
Mrs. Thankful Orella Hurd lives in the beautiful village of Brighton, Livingston Co., Mich. This venerable and highly respected lady was born in the year 1812 the year of the great war, in Hebron, Washington Co., New York. She came to Michigan in 1840, the year of "Typhoid" and "Typhus." All her faculties are excellently preserved, and possessing a very retentive memory, her mind is full of interesting reminiscences of her early life, of the early days of the State of Michigan and the interesting and remarkable people she has met, and the stirring events of which she was a witness. But nothing in her varied and manifold recollections are more marvellous and worthy of attention than are her experiences in the use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Hurd inherited a tendency and predisposition to scrofula, that terribly destructive blood taint which has cursed and is cursing the lives of thousands and marking thousands more as victims of the death angel. Transmitted from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family in one form or another. It may make its appearance in dreadful runnings sores, in unsightly swellings in the neck or groin, or in eruptions of varied forms. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may be known as catarrh in the head, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption.

Speaking of her case, Mrs. Hurd says: "I was troubled for many years with a bad skin disease. My arms and limbs would break out in a mass of sores, discharging yellow matter. My neck began to swell and became very unsightly in appearance. My body was covered with scrofulous eruptions. My eyes were also greatly inflamed and weakened, and they pained me very much. My blood was in a very bad condition and my head ached severely at frequent intervals, and I had no appetite. I had sores also in my ears. It was in a miserable condition. I had tried every remedy that had been recommended, and doctor after doctor had failed. One of the best physicians in the state told me I must die of scrofulous consumption, as internal abscesses were beginning to form. I at length was told of Dr. Johnston, of Detroit, and his famous Sarsaparilla. I tried a bottle, more as an experiment than anything else, as I had no faith in it, and greatly to my agreeable surprise, I began to grow better. You can be sure I kept on taking it. I took a great many bottles. But I steadily improved until I became entirely well. All the sores healed up, all the bad symptoms disappeared. I gained perfect health, and I have never been troubled with scrofula since. Of course an old lady of 83 years is not a young woman, but I have had remarkably good health since then, and I firmly believe that JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is the greatest blood purifier and the best medicine in the wide world, both for scrofula and as a spring medicine." This remarkably interesting old lady did not look to be more than sixty, and she repeated several times, "I believe my life was saved by JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA."

Healthy Mothers

Few mothers are healthy, because their duties are so exacting. The anxiety of pregnancy, the shock of childbirth, and the care of young children, are severe trials on any woman. But with Wine of Cardui within her grasp, every mother—every woman in the land—can pay the debt of personal health she owes her loved ones. Do you want robust health with all its privileges and pleasures? Wine of Cardui will give it to you.

strengthens the female organs and invigorates weakened functions. For every female ill or weakness it is the best medicine made. Ask your druggist for $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui, and take no substitute under any circumstances.

Mr. Edwin Green, Green, Mohe. "When I commenced using Wine of Cardui I was hardly able to do my housework. Two weeks after I had had a mild and quiet abortion. When my next child was born I suffered with labor pains 24 hours, and had to take medicine. I had no more. After using the Wine during pregnancy this time, I gave birth to a healthy baby girl, and was in better health than ever, with no labor pains and no trouble of any kind. For this great improvement in my health, I thank God and Wine of Cardui."

Our Alabama Letter.

COAL CITY, ALABAMA,
March 4, 1901.

Editor Nugget:—This is a dry town. Still, one of the deacons of the Baptist church, here, says that the church members drink liquor like an ox, dogs branch water, and "cusses like they had licenses for the business." Some body, it matters not who, runs a "blind tiger." It matters not where; "for wherever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together." A man by watching this crowd can always find the lair of the beast. With accommodating merchants (that sell Snake Bite Porina, and other bitters that will make drunk people (for medicine of course); and an express office that delivers by the bottle, jug, or keg, it is as easy to get drunk at any time, as it is to fall off of a slick log into the water and get wet. Well, you know how wet a dry town is, and how much prohibition prohibits. Dahlonega is a fair sample of a dry town, and the "mountain dew" gets it damp some times.

It seems like nearly every body in Alabama, or their daddies, are either from Georgia, or the old country. When the foreigners gather around a jug of beer, they spin yarns, sing songs and have a friendly time, but when a crowd of Americans get full, peace deserts the place, and the air is full of fight; black eyes, court house scrapes, lawyers fees, fines and imprisonment is the result.

The Georgians come, go, and stay. John Bell and one of John Bishop's sons are at Horse creek. John Coffee is at Poshontas, same county; Sam Korns and his brother-in-law, Holtzclow are running a barber shop at Brook Sidons, Jefferson county. Henry Cammon passed through Alabama, "but as the wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth;" so is every rambling miner. One made a speech in the local union here, not long since, who spoke of being in Arkansas, Pennsylvania, and Illinois in the space of a few weeks. If a rolling stone gathers no moss neither does a sitting hen ever get fat. So I reckon it is six of one, and half a dozen of the other. The man that travels can only spend all he makes, while if the one that stays at home don't watch, he will get in debt and have to travel out of it.

W. T. WESTBROOK.

Jacksonville, Fla., had a case the other night singular to the Buchanan case in Atlanta. A negro tramp stopped into Mrs. Benton's house and demanded supper. On being told there was nothing cooked, he struck the lady a severe blow over the head and ran. Mrs. Benton fell to the floor unconscious and it is believed her skull is fractured. The brute was afterwards captured and ought to be hung at once.

The Editor a Soft Thing.

How many obituaries, resolutions of respect, cards of thanks, notices of fairs, societies, church entertainments, lodges board of trade meetings and such like if the newspapers made even a moderate charge, would ever be published?

The truth is that the public has been taught to consider the average weekly newspaper as a thing run at the expense of the owner for the personal and free use of the editorial and public and great offense would be felt if the publisher dared to say that he ought to be paid something for publishing items which are of no general public interest.

Very often too, the people who ask the papers for most favors are those who are neither advertising patrons nor paying subscribers. A newspaper's space is its capital and it ought to be paid for just the same as other goods.

There are others who drop in occasionally and want an extra copy of the paper, or maybe a dozen or so, if it happens to have their name prominently mentioned, and say "I just want to send off a few sample copies and they will help to advertise our city and your paper, too," intending by these gracious remarks to forestall any thought of charging for the copies. And generally the editor is just "dead easy" and takes his medicine, giving away his space and his papers just to gratify the vanity of some individual who is far more able to pay for them than the editor is to give them away. But the editor goes on from day to day doing his acts of kindness and charity, expecting nothing realizing fully his expectations. Mayhap the day will come when a newspaper man can do business like other people. Amen.—Ex.

Widows Pensioners.

From the following item in the Atlanta Constitution of the 7th inst., there is still some doubt about the widows getting their pensions. It says:

Pension Commissioner Lindsay has already received some four or five hundred straggling applications for pensions under the recent law providing for indigent widows. This number has been received in spite of the fact that none of the ordinaries to whom blank applications were sent have been heard from. More than six thousand blank applications were distributed among the ordinaries and the outlook is far greater than was anticipated. It begins to look now that if the new class of widows will not be paid this year at all. If there are so many of them that $100,000 will not go round, the chances are that the matter will go over until the legislature settles the problem.

The so-called home in Atlanta to be on about the first of May. Some 50 applications have been made for admission. More than two thousand dollars of repairs will have to be made on the building before it is opened.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism. From the Vincliator, Rutherfordton, N. C.

The editor of the Vincliator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the remarkable result in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts affected and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the ointment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. Getting Thin is all right, if you are too fat and all wrong, if too thin already.

Fat, enough for your habit; healthy; a little more, or less, no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistent thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: overwork and under-digestion.

Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work—you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample. Its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE Chemists, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

APPLICATION FOR CHARTER.

GEORGIA—LUMPKIN COUNTY. To the Superior Court of said county:

The petition of Thomas H. Hicks, a subject of the Kingdom of Great Britain, residing at East Wayne, Indiana; John H. Bass, of Fort Wayne, Indiana; George H. Broymann, of Toledo, Ohio; Frank G. Thomson, of Toledo, Ohio; Mark Hopkins, of St. Clair, Michigan; Frank R. Adams, of Delaware, O.; J. G. Rosenthal, of Delaware, O.; J. W. Adams, of Chattanooga, Tennessee; R. C. Thomson, of Dahlonega, Georgia; and J. D. Ingersoll, of Dahlonega, Georgia, respectfully shows:

(1) That they desire for themselves, their associates, successors and assigns to be incorporated under the name and style of "Hicks Gold and Silver Extraction Company."

(2) They desire to be incorporated for the term of twenty years, with the privilege of renewal at the expiration of that time.

(3) The objects of the incorporation are:

A. To take over and acquire what is known as the Hicks Process of Amalgamation of Ores and all letters patent, and patent rights issued or to be issued and all rights, privileges and benefits of or pertaining to said process, and to sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

B. To purchase, control, operate, license and manufacture any and all apparatus or appliances embodied in said Hicks process for extracting metals from ores by heat and amalgamation therewith with all improvements thereof on, which have been or may be patented in the United States, and likewise to acquire Letters Patent and patent rights therefor, and sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

C. To purchase, control, operate, license, sell and manufacture any and all apparatus or appliances that may be of a kindred nature to said process or which may be used in conjunction with said process or which may be employed in the developing, perfecting, or operating said process, and likewise to acquire Letters Patent and patent rights therefor, and to sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

D. To purchase or otherwise acquire ores for treatment by said process or by any of the appliances or apparatus hereinbefore mentioned and set forth.

E. To erect, install, equip, operate, maintain, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of plants and works for use and employment of said process in the business of extracting metals from ores.

(4) They desire the right to promote and organize other and subsidiary corporations having in view the accomplishment of the various objects above set forth and to that end to subscribe to and purchase the capital stock of such

subsidiary corporations, having always in view that the subscription to and purchase of such capital stock shall in no wise be for the purpose or have the effect of defeating or lessening competition, or of encouraging monopoly in their respective businesses, and by contract made with them shall have or be intended to have such effect.

(5) They desire the right to do all such things and exercise all such powers as are necessary and proper in the conduct of their business and in effectuating the various objects of the incorporation.

(6) They desire the right to contract for, lease buy and hold such real estate as may be useful or proper in the conduct of their business and to sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise encumber the same; to issue bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness as the interests of the corporation may suggest and its Board of Directors may determine.

(7) They desire, as such corporation, to have the right to sue and be sued; to have and use a common seal; to make and prescribe such regulations and by-laws for its government as may be needful or proper and not contrary to law; to constitute and elect a Board of Directors and such officers as are usual and as may be prescribed by such by-laws, and they further desire all the general powers and privileges which may be conferred upon and are incident to corporations of said State of Georgia, which by-law are characterized by the Superior Court.

(8) The capital stock of said corporation shall be ($3,000,000) three million dollars divided into shares of one dollar each. And they desire the right to issue said capital stock, upon the organization of said corporation, as fully paid up and non-assessable stock; to take in full payment thereof an assignment and transfer of and the said Hicks process, issued hereof from the Patent Office of the United States on the 30th day of October 1900, said Letters Patent being numbered 660,774.

(9) The principal office of said corporation shall be at Dahlonega, said county of Lumpkin, State of Georgia. Petitioners desire the right to establish and maintain a branch office at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and such others as the stockholders may from time to time elect to establish.

Wherefore petitioners pray to be made a body corporate under the name and style aforesaid, and that a charter be granted them conferring the rights, privileges and powers herein set forth and petitioned for.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 15, 1901.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

The Delaware legislature has adjourned without electing a U. S. Senator.

A bill has been introduced in the North Carolina Senate to tax bachelors.

The well edited Ashburn Journal by Miss Kate Jenkins has reached our table.

A negro brute was lynched near Lenoir, Col., the other day for assaulting a 11 year-old white girl.

A daughter of Stephen Whitfield of Pickens county, committed suicide last Saturday by hanging herself.

Near Fairburn, Ga., on Sunday Mrs. Geo. H. McClure shot and seriously wounded Tom Shell, a negro who she feared.

In St. Louis the other day a laborer was badly injured by the explosion of a bottle of coffee which he had placed on a heating stove to warm.

The losses are running short of convicts they say. They would have plenty if everybody got their just reward, but this is not the case every time, not by hundreds.

Two judges of the superior court are to be elected in 1902. The justices whose terms expire there are Lumpkin and Cobb. It is said that Judge Geo. F. Guber, of Marietta, will be a candidate.

The grand jury of Jackson county recently voted to work the roads by taxation. This law should be adopted in Lumpkin county for our roads are always in very bad condition until they are worked just before court.

Mr. Rene Grainger, who is attending the North Georgia College at Dahlonega, returned home Monday and will leave this week for Sumatra to witness the total eclipse of the sun which occurs in May. -Cartersville American.

In Macon some nights ago a thief stole a red hot stove from a man's kitchen, and since then another citizen has lost a swarm of bees. It seems that thieves will take most anything in that city. Some one should give them a lot of lead.

Editor R. E. Elliott, of the Austell News, committed suicide in Atlanta Friday night by taking an overdose of morphine. He dressed himself ready for burial and left a note saying that he wanted to be carried back to Dawsonville and buried by the Masons.

Governor Candler received a letter from preacher Dickerson of Hall county who wanted him to grant a requisition so he could send after a man in Alabama who had gone off owing him a dollar. The Governor notified him that he would have to wait until the grand jury returned a true bill.

It seems now that Mrs. Nation was advised by an attorney and her husband to go to smothering saunas, and a legal proceeding is talked of being started against these men for giving such advice, resulting in the destruction of several thousand dollars worth of property besides causing a death or two.

The report of Comptroller General W. A. Wright, showing the receipts and disbursements of the state treasury for the quarter ending December 31, 1900, was made to the governor one day last week. The report shows a balance in the treasury October 1, 1900, of $416,143.30. The receipts for the quarter aggregated $1,375,246.70, making the total amount on hand $1,791,389.90. The disbursements for the quarter aggregated $570,094.97. The balance in the treasury December 31, 1900, was $1,220,698.12.

Lumpkin County Processioners.

Judge Huff has appointed the following processioners for this county:

Crumby: G. W. Christy, Chas. Reasley, G. B. Beasley.
Chestatee: A. N. White, Mark Seabolt, A. J. Dowdy.
Cane Creek: Moses A. Moore, L. M. Marlow, Frank G. Jones.
Yahoola: Chas. H. Jarrard, C. M. Head, Thos. Davis.
Porter Springs: W. H. Smith, Alfred Davis, W. S. Anderson.
Jones' Creek: M. M. Gamlin, E. L. Lingerfelt, Miles Berry.
Hightower: W. T. Ward, Lewis Rider, Goodman Minney.
Frogtoot: J. F. Sargent, W. D. Haney, W. S. Davis.
Davis: Roscoe Odum, Hardy Perdue, R. C. Payne.
Dahlonega: W. B. Owen, C. F. McAfee, Clyde H. Meaders.
Mill Creek: J. W. Perry, Bertry Crane, Will Gayden.
Simsbille: Emory Cochran, Charlie Fitts, G. W. Fricks.
Auraria: J. H. Summerour, Arthur Miller, J. A. Hollifield.
Martin's Ford: Dan Early, A. N. Poor, R. L. London.
Wahoo: Lonnie Pierce, Y. G. Abernomb, G. S. Sullins.
Shoal Creek: Miles Stargel, W. T. Stringer, Robert Parrish.
These parties receive $1.00 per day while engaged.

We are glad to state that Thomas Christian, of Auraria, who was reported dead recently is still alive and some better. The lady in that vicinity who started the report thought the old man was dying and woman like wanted to spread the news first, but was most too fast this time.

The jury in Mrs. Nations case made a mistrial, standing seven to five for conviction.

EXECUTOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Lumpkin county.
By virtue of an order of the court of ordinary of Clarke county, granted at the November Term, 1900, of said court there will be sold at public outcry on the first Tuesday in April, 1901, at the court house in said county, between the usual hours of sale, to the highest bidder the following interest in real estate, situated in said state and county, to-wit: An undivided one-half (1-2) interest in lot No. 799, 12th District, 1st Section. Also an undivided one-sixth (1-6) interest in lot No. 801, 12th District, 1st Section. Also an undivided one-third (1-3) interest in fractional lot No. 1294, 12th District, 1st Section. Terms cash.

AN ORDINANCE.

Fixing the manner of paying street tax, and imposing a tax on all Dogs in the city of Dahlonega:
Be it ordained by the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Dahlonega in council assembled:
That the sum of Three Dollars is hereby imposed upon every male inhabitant of the city under 50 years of age, who may be liable to perform road duty. The Chief Marshal is authorized to receipt for acquittances of road tax for one-half the above sum for each six months of the year 1901. But nothing herein contained shall prevent any person, so liable, from performing road and street work in such manner, and for such length of time, not exceeding the time provided by law, as may be prescribed by the street committee, under the superintendence of the City Marshal, in lieu of the commutation tax above imposed. All persons failing to pay the above tax, or who shall fail to work on the streets when notified, shall be returned by the City Marshal to the City Clerk as defaulters when the Mayor shall take such further steps to collect the same as authorized by Section 28 of the City Charter.

It is further ordained, That the tax known as the Sanitary Tax shall be continued of force, and the sums imposed shall be collected in the manner heretofore provided by Ordinance of the council.

It is hereby further ordained, That the following taxes are hereby imposed on all dogs now in the corporate limits of the city, or which may be brought into the city at any time during the year 1901 that is to say: One dollar for every male dog or male puppy, and two dollars and fifty cents on each female dog or puppy. The City Marshal is directed to provide tags or collars for all dogs, which the tax has been paid which tag or collar shall be paid by the owners of the dogs. The above tax on dogs must be paid in cash, and if not paid when demanded, the Marshal is authorized to have the same killed.

Done by order of the City Council at a regular meeting of the same March the 6th, 1901, and ordered to be recorded and published.

W. P. PRICE, Mayor.
O. J. LILEY, Clerk Pro Tem.
Recorded on minutes of council March 7th, 1901, page 117.
W. J. WOLFEY, City Clerk.

Texas, Kentucky, Illinois and other states were visited by a very destructive cyclone last Saturday and Saturday night, killing numbers of persons and destroying thousands of dollars worth of property. At Owensboro, Ky., a cloud burst out a place in the streets 50 feet in circumference and 25 feet deep. At Willpoint, Tex., the damage is $50,000, a swath being cut two or three hundred yards wide through the city. Telegraph wires were blown from the poles and freight cars removed from the track. In Chicago the damage is estimated at about $175,000. Great damage to many other places are reported.

The advisory board meets at the capital on the 23rd at which time it may be that a recommendation will be made to Assistant Adjutant General Phil G. Bird to disband the negro militia.

Judge Murray, of Tennessee, returned to Dahlonega last Monday.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Georgia—Lumpkin County.

THE NUGGET

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 15, 1901.

Spring opens next Wednesday.

Fresh flowers and garden seeds for sale by The Matthews Drug Co.

Dr. Jones has made some additional improvements on his drug store this week.

Nugget and semi-weekly Atlanta Journal twelve months for only $1.50 per year.

Moore Bros, livermen, no occupy the Evans stable next to J. E. McGee's store.

More business is done in Dahlonega than any other place of its size in Georgia.

The jail since receiving a new coat of paint doesn't have the appearance of an old barn.

The grip is holding up a little in this section now, causing the physicians to get a little rest.

T. S. Littlefield will move to Dahlonega in a short while and go into business. We welcome him.

We are receiving a new lot of type now enabling us to turn out job work neater than ever before.

Quite a number of persons left Dahlonega last Sunday to attend the U. S. Court in Atlanta as witnesses.

J. C. Croy, the jeweler, who has been located in Dahlonega for some time is going to locate at Fairmount, Ga.

Walt Christian, after a few days illness of pneumonia fever died at his home in Auraria district last Monday evening.

Officials should supply themselves with neat blanks to be found at the Nugget office. You can't use brown paper while attending to official business.

Last Sunday was a very wet day but religious services were held at both Methodist and Baptist churches, very good congregations being present at both.

Strangers are here almost every day with a view of commencing business of some kind, causing Dahlonega future to grow brighter all the time.

Messrs. S. L. Munson and Fred Munson, the former of Albany, New York, and the latter of Chicago, have been here this week looking at the mines.

W. P. Price, Jr., went up to Cleveland, Ga., last Friday to see a gentleman about moving his machine to Dahlonega and making a lot of pressed brick for his contemplated store room on the public square.

W. L. Henley, formerly of Dahlonega, but now of Ingleside, Ga., who is in the dairy business, writes us that he has heard of 61 Jerseys and of course he has plenty of milk and butter to supply a large number of customers.

In anticipation of the fine spring days coming the Crescent Tennis Club was recently organized among the lovers of out-door sports, with the following officers and members: Prof. Steed, President; A. E. O'Kelley, Manager; F. P. Catchings, Secretary; P. E. Castleberry, Treasurer; Prof. Martin, Mr. Wallace Rogers, Mrs. Colvin, Prof. Stewart, Miss Clark, Prof. Vickery, Miss Faver, Prof. Ansted, Miss Martin, Miss Lizzie Castleberry, Miss Seafie, Miss Bertie Castleberry, Mr. Starr, Mr. Ansley.

The weather man failed to give us a clear bright day Saturday according to promise, but instead we had plenty of rain and mud Saturday and Sunday, being so disagreeable that but little black-ale liquor was brought to town, causing some of the usual indulgers to look as dry as a powder house. Only two intoxicated persons appeared on the streets Sunday. One of them carried a rock in his pocket preparatory we suppose to have something firm upon which to rest his weary head in case he fell by the wayside in the mud.

Postmaster Farrow of Gainesville, spent a day or two in Dahlonega this week.

Ferry's garden seed. Also plenty of onion sets and seed Irish potatoes at Copelands.

The little ten-year-old girl of Jacob Loggins died in Auraria district Tuesday night.

Miss Grace Valentine, of Lead, South Dakota, is on a visit here to her sister, Mrs. W. B. Fry.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hyden died in the lower part of the county last Tuesday.

Anderson & Jones are headquarters for seed and eating Irish potatoes. They have the finest in city.

Will Crawford, who is charged with swearing falsely in the Will Evans murder trial at Gainesville, was arrested in Atlanta this week.

C. C. Davis, formerly of Union county but now of Texas, who attended college in Dahlonega about nine years ago, is back on a visit.

Anderson & Jones have just received another nice line of clothing, fur and straw hats and an up to date line. Call and see them if you want bargains.

The public school teachers will be glad to learn that State School Commissioner Glenn has been busy this week drawing his warrants for them to the amount of $800,000.

James Borden of this county, dropped into see us last Thursday, who informed us that he has a Bible that was bought July 24th 1807 which cost $10.00 in South Carolina. He also has a pocket book that was made three years before the civil war out of ground hog skin, which he carries now.

A special from Ducktown Tenn., reports small pox as having broke out at the copper mines there, rendering it necessary to quarantine certain sections. There are several persons from Lumpkin county at work there, none of whom should return and endanger their home people here until all danger is over.

Last Monday Mr. Ashley, who was down at Gainesville, telephoned to his mine for "Prof." Ed. Austin, colored, who was staying with him, to bring his horse and buggy and meet him at Murrayville. The negro hitched up and drove over. After waiting some ten minutes for Mr. Ashley and he didn't come Edward came on back via. Price to Dahlonega, making thirty miles in about three hours. Mr. Ashley arrived at Murrayville soon after Ed. departed who, not understanding his actions telephoned Marshal Harbin to take charge of both the horse and negro if they appeared in Dahlonega. In a short while the officer saw the horse coming, pulling an object in the buggy. The marshal stopped the animal, got up into the vehicle, gazed down into a deep shadowy cellar and espied "Prof." Austin, when the instructions of Mr. Ashley, were carried out, who had the negro released the next morning.

Mrs. H. C. Wheelchel gave a delightful entertainment at her home on the 9th inst., from 2:35 to 7 p. m. in honor of Misses Mattie Moore and Ethel Harris. The hostess received in her own charming manner, and made every one happy. Much interest was taken by the guests in supplying the missing words in "A Floral Romance," from which contest all derived pleasure and benefit. At 5 the guests were ushered into the dining room, where an elegant supper was served. Each guest received a lovely bouquet of sweet violets as a souvenir. After supper the young people, being loth to leave, enjoyed another hour in the parlor. Those present were: Misses Ethel Harris, Mattie Moore, Willie Mae Seafie, Annie Grimes, Sue Martin, Kate Faver, Grace Valentine, Cora Wheelchel, Oreflow Stow, Fannie and Marie Gailard, Eva McKee, Birdie Meador, Maggie Crisson, and Messrs. J. M. Martin, S. A. Harris, and B. P. Gillard, Jr.

Subscribers here will understand that a cross mark on their paper means that their subscription has expired.

Assistant postmaster Price visited Atlanta this week. Harry Garley performed his duties during his absence.

Mrs. J. A. Butts, of Blairsville, who has been spending some time with relatives in Dahlonega will leave for her home in a few days.

Prof. Steed has proven himself to be a crack shot. He went out the other day and killed five partridges at two shots on the wing.

Miss Belle Tharig, one of the lady teachers of the public school, after being absent a short while on account of the death of her brother, returned this week and resumed her duties in school.

A. J. Ash, of Chastee district, brought down two of the largest beavers last Monday and sold them to J. H. Moore, that have been sold in this market in a long time, which realized him about $71. The largest weighed sixty-two and a half pounds net.

A mechanic not being convenient last Monday Col. Price picked up a saw and started down about the church to do a little job of work. The Colonel weighs near three hundred pounds and we imagine that it is as difficult for him to perform such work as it was a lady the other day wanting water who was laced so tight she couldn't turn the crank to the well.

The old fire engine, which was bought for Dahlonega about a half century ago is a thing of the past now. Last Monday the copper, brass and bolts of the same were sold to Mr. Benedict who will ship them to some market below. The oldest thing now in the way of a relic left is the old Riley street lamp which is in front of the Hall's Villa, having been there ever since the town was started.

Geo. Sissum and his wife here have been at a misunderstanding and living under separate roofs for some time. The other day it was reported on the streets that Mrs. Sissum took George by one hand and whipped him with a switch like he was a child. Little George said it was not true, but she did hit him in the face with a saucer "a little bit ago." So the husband was only sauced and not whipped.

The tax collector has been round looking after special taxes. He can find no one who sells or gives away cigarette papers, yet they are being slipped to boys who go about puffing them every day. The boys can't manufacture these papers. The only special taxes collected here so far are as follows: Union Store Co., $25 for dealing in pistols, cartridges and knives, and ten dollars each from Bruce and Davidson, photographers.

Perry Anderson, colored, lost one of his little twin girls this week, and nearly every person of his color in town quit their work and attended the burial. Colored people here show more respect for each other in this manner than the white race does. Matters not what negro dies all of the race render every assistance possible. The people here have a society the object of which is for its members to look after each other in distress but a person who dies must be pretty well off to receive much attention. Not long since an old man passed away in Dahlonega. He was very poor, but honorable and upright. A few went to see him during the day but when night came we understand that no faces could be seen at that house except the old gray headed wife and her son, who had to sit up alone with their dead relative. Suppose the deceased had been a wealthy person? The house would have been full, certain persons couldn't have been tied away and poor people would have been hanging around the house like negroes at a show. Yet we are told that the foreign heathen must be looked after.

Call and see our 10c lace remnants. B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

Farmers received eight cents a pound for their pork in Dahlonega last week.

Your attention is directed to a city ordinance published elsewhere. Read it and keep posted as to your duty.

It looks as if the female dogs will have to leave Dahlonega. The city council at its last meeting fixed the tax on them at $2.50 this year, fifty cents increase.

M. A. Spurlin, the laundryman, is located in the building near old tan yard, where he is ready to do your washing, dyeing and cleaning on short notice, strictly for cash.

We can always tell when some of our citizens go to gardening. They use both the hoe and the gun. The hoe to work with and the gun to shoot the pigeons with after the garden is planted.

The students of the N. G. A. College are taking unusual interest in drilling now on account of prizes being offered for the best drilled company, causing the three companies to get a "thump" on them.

Mrs. Fannie Chester, a widow lady residing in Dawson county, had the misfortune to lose her house and its contents by fire a few nights ago. The citizens of Dahlonega were called on to assist her and a few did so.

G. D. Bruce, the photographer, still keeps busy taking views of the mines, rivers, dams and mountains near Dahlonega and at various places in the county. There is a big demand for them north. He now has more than 200 different views and is adding to this already large number every day.

It's right funny. The other day a negro man had a jug of liquor, was watched by another negro. As soon as the owner left the other negro, notwithstanding he belonged to the church, slipped and got about half of it and was soon pretty "foxy." The next day a white member of the church was said to be drunk also. This shows that joining the church does not quench a persons thirst for strong drink.

Just after the big fire in Atlanta we made mention in the presence of a church member of the large amount of goods that were destroyed and so many needing them. His reply was that it was the "Lord's work." Last Sunday a lot of liquor was sold down on the creek, causing some of the participants to get drunk and so mad that they ran after each other with open knives. Was this the work of the Lord?

The other night a young man after being told by his sweetheart that he had never done anything to show that he loved her, caused him to hunt nearly all the next day for a doxy. After getting one he sent her one of his wings together with a whole lot of beautiful reading to convince her that he was not false, and when warm weather sets in many pleasant hours will be spent together while that birds wing will keep them as cool apparently as if you were to throw ice water in their faces. Love works in many mysterious ways.

It is just throwing money away for the council to have any more of that fine black stuff hauled from the branch and put on any of the sidewalks. It does very well during dry weather to settle the dust but is gone the first rain and we are back in the mud as usual. No use to put anything on them when each side is higher than the center of the walk. Use coarse gravel while the ground is wet and soft and pound the rock down into the walks until they become firm, then there will be nothing more to do to them for years. What we all want and need is walks dry enough of a wet time so the mud on them won't be shoe mouth deep. There is plenty of street tax assessed every year to put the walks in much better fix than they have yet been.

The change in the weather last Monday to cold caused the wood haulers to renew their smiles.

Tax Receiver Shagel has been unwell for some time, having to take his bed for the first time last Saturday.

Col. J. H. Moore, vice president of the Crown Mountain Co., returned to the city last Monday accompanied by his lady.

A most excellent soda fountain is being added to the drug store of the Matthews Drug Co., which will be in operation in a week or ten days. Mr. Matthews is an experienced hand at the business and will be able to furnish all desiring it something delicious to drink in a few days.

A good deal of important business was transacted at the Justices Court here last Friday. It continued nearly all day. There was one jury trial and the jury sit there and listened to the argument of counsel for hours, for which they received each 25 cents, the amount allowed by law, and now it goes to a higher court.

A postal route agent was in one day last week from Kentucky trying to get some one to take the contract of carrying the Dahlonega and Ellijay mail—the sub-contractor having refused to carry it longer. He didn't succeed here. People are getting tired of carrying mails for nothing. We hope that these original contractors will either have to pay good prices for such work or carry it themselves. Later a man came in with it a foot.

Uncle Dick Wheelchel has recovered from his recent severe spell of the grip so as to be out again. He has a gander which goes with him every where and has for a number of years. When he goes into a store the gander follows to the door, and if Uncle Dick stays too long to suit the gander it enters and takes the old man by the pants leg and pulls. We have often heard the expression of a person being "as foolish as a goose." It does not apply to this gander for it has got sense enough to love and respect the one who cares for it. Numbers of people do not do this.

In last weeks paper we stated that young Holcomb, who was up before Mayor Price, was drinking. His father tells us that he has never known him to drink, and in carrying him home could not small liquor on him—if he was it was his first that he knew of. We trust that the young man wasn't for when one begins drinking so young they generally continue until they grow old. Heretofore the young man had conducted himself right and proper. His parents are highly respectable and well liked and thought of by all who know them.

There are rarely any church trials in Dahlonega, but they are a frequent occurrence at country churches. Not long since a member in the country was brought to trial for cursing, who was heard by some of the others while driving a team. He acknowledged it, telling them that while hauling a load of manure the team ran away, turned the wagon over and sentered it in every direction, but he hoped the brothers and sisters would forgive him. They did. Now, according to some of the church doctrine, he will stand as good a chance to wear as big a crown as any of them.

Even lovers sometimes get disappointed. The other Sunday a certain married man, after taking on a few drinks, decided to go out a little piece in the country to see the darling of his heart. When reaching his destination it was about dusk. Seeing the form of a female coming around the corner of the house, he thought that it was the one he was looking for, and in quicker time than it takes to tell it, stole a kiss. Think of his disappointment when discovering that he had kissed the girl's mother, who is so old that she only has one tooth and it's loose, which rattled in her head like a last years garden rake.

Mining Notes.

Mr. Packard has his mill at Turkey Hill in operation again. Another rich pocket was shot in to on at Wallace vein on Wednesday, showing great lumps of gold, being too rich to try to describe.

All the mines operated in this county by native miners are paying a profit. Book knowledge of mining isn't worth a cent. Practical experience is what it takes to run any kind of business.

Capitalists investing money in mining property here should secure the services of practical native miners who have the interest of the country at heart. It is to their interest to work for the benefit of their employer. Men who live here will take pride in doing anything they can to build up their home county, while parties from the west come to stay for a while only and don't care a straw what becomes of this country.

The whistle heard at the Ashley boat every day proves that it is kept constantly in motion causing the Chastee to give up the yellow metal which cannot be secured in any other manner. We learn that if this is a paying investment that four or five others will be constructed by the same gentleman and put into operation in this section. The Birch dredge boat in this county has been paying for a number of years and we see no reason why Mr. Ashley's should be a failure.

Mr. Breyman, vice president of the Consolidated Co., has returned from the north and is again giving the Hand mine his personal attention, moving things along in his usual lively manner, causing more hands to be added so as to increase such work as is necessary. The shaft work on both the Consolidated and Standard properties are being pushed forward, already having reached a considerable depth on both. Work commenced this week near the Dahlonega shaft cleaning out an incline which leads to a vein so as to begin taking out ore at this point.

Mr. Mayne, of London, is here busy opening up mining property for an English Co. Experts will be on in a short while to examine the same and make a report, and if it is favorable an investment will be made and much money spent, causing a bigger renewal in the mining business than ever before known in this country. The gentleman is still engaged with a force of hands opening up the Battle Branch property located near Auraria. Some splendid veins have been discovered, the binding of a portion of them being worth about a pennyweight to the pan.

Gen. Warner, president of the Crown Mountain Co., was here again last week looking at the progress of the construction work of the plant and was well pleased. The masonry work on the foundation for the pump at the river is nearing completion and will soon be ready to have the pump placed in position. The reservoir on Crown Mountain into which the pump will discharge is being excavated, and by the time the twelve inch main is laid down the river, will be ready to receive the water. The big dynamo for the power plant at Seabolt Shoals has been hauled and will be set in position to connect with the water wheel which furnishes the motive power.

The weekly clean ups at the celebrated Findley mine by Witt and Campbell still continue in richness as they go down on the vein. The ore when first struck was only worth about one dollar and a half a ton and now it is so rich that the nuggets alone last week amounted to more than 40 pennyweights. A number of tons of this ore are being hauled up to the big Consolidated Co. mill for a test and if more gold is saved on this improved mill than on the old style at the Findley a railroad will be built to connect the two mines and the ore will be conveyed to the new mill and crushed. That is if enough is saved by the process to justify the construction of the railroad. So says the vice president of the company.

At the Griffin Cotton Mills the other day the big fly wheel weighing sixteen tons burst and the pieces were scattered in every direction, but fortunately killed no one. One piece weighing about three tons was hurled over fifty feet and came crashing through the roof. The damage will foot up about $20,000.

Great God has the time come that our mothers, sisters and wives have no protection from the hellish black hands in the very heart of the Gate City of the South.

THE Crown Mountain Gold Mining & Milling Co.

The Crown Mountain properties are situated in the very heart of the Georgia gold belt and in the radiating center of all the leading gold veins of the Dahlonega district. They embrace what is believed to be the mother lode of the Appalachian Range.

The extensive and rich ore bodies in sight upon these properties assure long continued mining operations and the indisputable guarantee of the permanent and increasing value of the stock of "The Crown Mountain Co."

The projectors of this company were the first to revive the mining interest in this district in 1896. After three years of careful and exhaustive examination of all the mines of the district of reputation as gold producers, and they had the choice of all, they selected the Crown Mountain combination as the ideal gold mine of the district which would yield or produce the most gold with the least expense. This opinion is shown by all the mining engineers, mining experts, miners and citizens of any standing in the district who are familiar with the properties. As an evidence of this we here state that more of the citizens of the town of Dahlonega and vicinity have taken stock in this company than have in all the other companies combined that have organized in this district.

The company is to be managed by practical business men—who have given much of their time to mining and mining operations, and always with unvarying success.

The present directors are for the most part composed of men who have had much experience in the mining enterprises, and under its efficient and economical management, and by reason of a visible gold supply that is practically inexhaustible, an investment in the stock of this company is undoubtedly safe. The capitalization of the company is not commensurate with the visible productiveness of the properties and is meagre compared with the capitalization of other justly celebrated mines in the district, but the management believe it will be able to make the stock worth above par.

We invite all prospective investors to make a personal inspection of the mines. We also invite them to examine all the other mines in the district—compare the quality and quantity of the ore and the facilities for economically treating the same. We have no fears of where the choice will fall.

Until further notice of advance in prices, the stock of this company will be sold at the minimum rate of 50.00 per share. For further information apply to J. E. or J. H. Moore, Dahlonega, Ga., or Donovan & McCabe, 10 & 12 West Spring Street, Columbus, Ohio, or Gen. Warner, Marietta, Ohio.

I. H. Dickerson, a ministerial-looking negro, claiming to be the president of the National ex-Slave Mutual Relief and Pension association, who was convicted in the criminal branch of the Atlanta court the other day of cheating and swindling, was fined $1,000 by Judge Calhoun. It was shown that he had been robbing negroes out of their money upon the pretext that he was going to get pensions for them from the national government. Judge Calhoun expressed regrets that he could not make the fine larger than $1,000.

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

A MOST WONDERFUL CURE.

A Grand Old Lady Gives Her Experience.

Mrs. Thankful Orilla Hurd lives in the beautiful village of Brighton, Livingston Co., Mich. This venerable and highly respected lady was born in the year 1812, the year of the Revolutionary War, in Hebron of Washington Co., New York. She came to Michigan in 1840, the year of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too." All her faculties are excellently preserved, and possessing a very retentive memory, her mind is full of interesting reminiscences of her early life, of the early days of the State of Michigan and the interesting and remarkable people she has met, and the stirring events of which she was a witness. But nothing in her varied and manifold recollections are more marvellous and worthy of attention than are her experiences in the use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Hurd inherited a tendency and predisposition to scrofula, that terribly destructive blood taint which has cursed the lives of thousands and marking thousands more as victims of the death angel. Transmitted from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family in one form or another. It may make its appearance in dreadful running sores, in unsightly swellings in the neck or groin, or in eruptions of varied forms. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may be known as catarrh in the head, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption.

Speaking of her case, Mrs. Hurd says: "I was troubled for many years with a bad skin disease. My arms and limbs would break out in a mass of sores, discharging yellow matter. My neck began to swell and became very unsightly in appearance. My body was covered with scrofulous eruptions. My eyes were also greatly inflamed and weakened, and they pained me very much. My blood was in a very bad condition and my head ached severely at frequent intervals, and I had no appetite. I had sores also in my ears. I was in a miserable condition. I had tried every remedy that had been recommended, and doctor after doctor had failed. One of the best physicians in the state told me I must die of scrofulous consumption, as internal abscesses were beginning to form. I at length was told of Dr. Johnston, of Detroit, and his famous Sarsaparilla. I tried a bottle, more as an experiment than anything else, as I had no faith in it, and greatly to my agreeable surprise, I began to grow better. You can be sure I kept on taking it. I took a great many bottles. But I steadily improved until I became entirely well. All the sores healed up, all the bad symptoms disappeared. I gained perfect health, and I firmly believe that JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is the greatest blood purifier and the best medicine in the world, both for scrofula and as a spring medicine." This remarkably interesting old lady did not let the time pass without repeating several times, "I believe my life was saved by JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA."

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. Little menstrual disorders started at that time soon grow into fatal convulsions. That female troubles are filling graveyards proves this. Wine of Cardui establishes a regular and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Many women, young and old, owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. There is nothing like it to give women freedom from pain and to fit young women for every duty of life. $1.00 bottles at druggists.

Miss Della M. Strayer, Tully, Iowa: "I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time, was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything. In fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui, with Thedford's Black-Draught, when needed, and today I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me."

Can a Woman Keep a Secret?

"I read somewhere the other day," remarked a citizen as he inclined his head forward with his eyes half closed, as if he was not certain of his grip on the story he intended to tell, "of a woman who married and did not disclose the fact for a year afterwards, for the reason, she said, that it had been told of her that a woman couldn't keep a secret. She was one woman in a thousand I can relate many instances where a woman cannot keep a secret and I will mention one because there is an element of humor in it, and I think you will enjoy it. Not a thousand miles from Macon is a church in a settlement made up of working people—the salt of the earth, if you please. There was a meeting at the church on a certain Sunday night—no matter how long ago. It was known as communion Sunday, and quite a large congregation was present. The services proceeded in the usual way, until it was discovered that by some unfortunate circumstance the wine had been forgotten. The cups of bread were there all right, but of course the wine was necessary. On this discovery there was some whispering, and a young lady member of the congregation volunteered to go home after the wine. She tip-toed out of the church in such a way as not to cause curiosity, and even coughed a little so as to disarm suspicion, creating the impression upon the minds of those who had noted her leaving that she was fearful of disturbing the serenity of the service. In a church, you know, the waits can be readily filled up with the extension of a prayer or the singing of an extra hymn, and this was done. The young lady finally returned with a bottle carefully concealed about her person, as a woman only knows how. At the proper time the bread cubes and wine were handed around, and it was evident from an ill-concealed sputter that something was wrong with the wine. There was a sputter from every one who tasted it, but each tried to smother any exclamation or indication that the wine was not what it should be, until it struck an old lady who believed in calling a spade a spade. She took the usual sip, gave a loud gasp and exclaimed that that was not wine, but cholera remedy. The other who had tasted the stuff had been debating in their minds whether it was tobacco sauce or extract of ginger; and when the old lady mentioned cholera remedy she solved the problem for them, and the chuckles that had been confined by hard work broke out into a laugh that made the good pastor sick. Of course, he knew that by some mistake the young lady in her haste had brought the wrong bottle from home, but he concluded to make the best of a bad matter by acknowledging the joke, and made every member of the congregation promise never to tell it. They never told it, but a woman did, and that is how I came to know about it. No, a woman cannot keep a secret."

And the crowd of listeners agreed with him.—Ex.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.
George W. Watt, of South Carolina, Me., says: "I have had the worst cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturer of an honest medicine." For sale by The Matthews Drug Co.

The negro Sherman Harris who killed S. J. King at Knighton, has been lynched.

Andrew Carnegie is certainly a very liberal hearted man. He has already donated millions to public libraries and still continues to give more.

John Henderson, col., was killed and burned near Corsicana, Texas, the other day for assaulting and killing Mrs. Younger, a farmer's wife.

The northwest was visited by a most disastrous storm last week. Railway lines were blocked for some time by walls of snow, and car windows and cabs were crushed by the blizzard.

An Indian who employed a substitute in the civil war, applies for a pension on the ground that his substitute, to whom he paid $300, was killed, and the applicant was old and needy.

It won't be any trouble in getting any one to act as Governor of Georgia next time as three prominent gentlemen have already made it known that they are willing to serve the dear people.

Congress was in session for just 197 days, counting both sessions. In that time nearly 15,000 bills were introduced in the house, of which nearly 1,000 became laws, of those 1,250 were private acts, mostly pension bills, only 345 being of public interest.

The biggest baby ever born so far as medical records show is the child of Dr. and Mrs. Edward McCarthy, of Camden, N. J. This surprising boy weighed 25 pounds at birth, and a dozen physicians have weighed him and certified to that fact. The boy is perfectly healthy and as strong as a baby several weeks old.

The Dahlonega young men and boys who are cigarette smokers would do well to read the following. "Roubin Maffitt," a resident of Girard, Ala., died last week from the effects of smoking cigarettes. Maffitt was twenty-five years of age and leaves a wife. He was never known to be without a cigarette and consumed from fifteen to twenty-five packs a day. On his death bed he would ask for them and after losing his voice would make signs. His fingers were stained a deep yellow and his attending physicians said that his lungs were in the same condition."

Somebody has said that the local paper is a mirror, reflecting the life of a community in which it is published, showing the character and tastes of the people, and furnishing a correct index to the business enterprises and the development of the locality. This figure is accurate only in proportion as to the local newspaper fulfills its true mission, for the paper that is started to boom real estate and to create fictitious values, the paper that is started as an auxiliary to the ambitions of some thorn politician, and several other classes of so called newspapers, give a distorted and inaccurate reflection of local life. There is no question, however, but that a majority of people are inclined to judge a town by its newspapers.—Chandler (Okla.) News.

The sum of $300,000 has been paid out for pensions in Georgia since the 15th of January.

Andrew Carnegie seems to be highly in favor of public libraries. He has given the city of Lincoln, Neb., $25,000 for this purpose. Devenport, Iowa, $75,000. Springfield, Ill., $75,000 and promised Sheboygan, Wis., $25,000. Quite a nice sum of money.

The NUGGET will keep you posted in all the mining and local news. While we club it with either the Atlanta Weekly Constitution or Semi-Weekly Journal. The NUGGET and Constitution for $1.75 and the NUGGET and the Semi-Weekly Journal for $1.50. So there is no excuse for you not keeping posted for a very small sum.

In Chicago the other day a woman tied up the sayings of her husband and herself, amounting to $8,080, in an old cloth and hid it in a rag bag, without the knowledge of her husband. Along came the rag man, and the husband, as might be expected, sold the bag and its contents to him, receiving therefor eleven cents. The rag man sailed for Germany.

Rheumatism.

Nobody knows all about it, and nothing, now known, will always cure it.

Doctors try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, when they think it is caused by imperfect digestion of food. You can do the same.

It may or may not be caused by the failure of stomach and bowels to do their work. If it is, you will cure it; if not, you will do no harm.

The way, to cure a disease is to stop its cause, and help the body get back to its habit of health.

When Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil does that, it cures; when it don't, it don't cure. It never does harm.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

When a man wants the public to know that he has something to sell, or services to render, systematic and persistent advertising in the newspapers will do most toward achieving his purpose than any other means of publicity. In every community the most successful merchants are those who use the newspapers. Circulars, dodgers, programmes, bill boards and directory schemes are a waste of money.

APPLICATION FOR CHARTER.

GEORGIA—LUMPKIN COUNTY.

To the Superior Court of said county:

The petition of Thomas H. Hicks, a subject of the kingdom of Great Britain, residing at Fort Wayne, Indiana; John H. Bass, of Fort Wayne, Indiana; George H. Brown, of Toledo, Ohio; Frank G. Thompson, of Toledo, Ohio; Mark Hopkins, of St. Clair, Michigan; Frank R. Adams, of Delaware, O.; J. G. Rosenthal, of Delaware, O.; J. W. Adams, of Chattanooga, Tennessee; R. C. Thompson, of Dahlonega, Georgia and H. D. Ingersoll, of Dahlonega, Georgia, respectfully shows:

(1) That they desire for themselves, their associates, successors and assigns to be incorporated under the name and style of "Hicks Gold and Silver Extraction Company."

(2) They desire to be incorporated for the term of twenty years, with the privilege of renewal at the expiration of that time.

(3) The objects of the incorporation are:

A. To take over and acquire what is known as the Hicks Process of Amalgamation of Ores and all letters patent, and patent rights issued or to be issued and all rights, privileges and benefits of or pertaining to said process, and to sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

B. To purchase, control, operate, license and manufacture any and all apparatus or appliances embodied in said Hicks process for extracting metals from ores by heat and amalgamation together with all improvements thereupon, which have been or may be patented in the United States, and likewise to acquire Letters Patent and patent rights therefor, and sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

C. To purchase, control, operate, license, sell and manufacture any and all apparatus and appliances that may be of a kindred nature to said process or which may be used in conjunction with said process or which may be employed in the developing, perfecting, or operating said process and likewise to acquire Letters Patent and patent rights therefor, and to sell, let or otherwise dispose of said patent rights.

D. To purchase or otherwise acquire ores for treatment by said process or by any of the appliances or apparatus hereinbefore mentioned and set forth.

E. To erect, install, equip, operate, maintain, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of plants and works for use and employment of said process in the business of extracting metals from ores.

(4) They desire the right to promote and organize other and subsidiary corporations having in view the accomplishment of the various objects above set forth and to that end to subscribe to and purchase the capital stock of such

subsidiary corporations, having always in view that the subscription to and purchase of such capital stock shall in no wise be for the purpose or have the effect of defeating or lessening competition, or of encouraging monopoly in their respective businesses, and no contract made with them shall have or be intended to have such effect.

(5) They desire the right to do all such things and exercise all such powers as are necessary and proper in the conduct of their business and in effectuating the various objects of the incorporation.

(6) They desire the right to contract for, lease buy and hold such real estate as may be useful or proper in the conduct of their business and to sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise encumber the same; to issue bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness as the interests of the corporation may suggest and its Board of Directors may determine.

(7) They desire, as such corporation, to have the right to sue and be sued; to have and use a common seal; to make and prescribe such regulations and by-laws for its government as may be needed or proper and not contrary to law to constitute and elect a Board of Directors and such officers as are usual and as may be prescribed by such by-laws, and they further desire all the general powers and privileges which may be conferred upon and are incident to corporations of said State of Georgia, which by law are chartered by the Superior Courts.

(8) The capital stock of said corporation shall be ($3,000,000) three million dollars divided into shares of one dollar each. And they desire the right to issue said capital stock, upon the organization of said corporation, as fully paid up and non-assessable stock; to take in full payment thereof an assignment and transfer of and the right and title to a certain invention of the said Thomas H. Hicks, being an improvement in amalgamators for extracting amalgamable metals from their ores, patent having been applied for said invention on March 25, 1900, and Letters Patent having been issued therefor from the Patent Office of the United States on the 30th day of October 1900, said Letters Patent being numbered 660,774.

(9) The principal office of said corporation shall be at Dahlonega, said county of Lumpkin, State of Georgia. Petitioners desire the right to establish and maintain a branch office at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and such others as the stockholders may from time to time elect to establish.

Wherefore petitioners pray to be made a body corporate under the name and style aforesaid, and that a charter be granted them conferring the rights, privileges and powers herein set forth and petitioned for.

PRICE & CHARTERS.
Petitioners attorneys,
Filed in office February 26, 1901.
J. H. MOORE, C. S. C.

GEORGIA—LUMPKIN COUNTY:
J. H. Moore Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the original petition for incorporation of "Hicks Gold and Silver Extraction Company," as the same appears of file in said office.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 22, 1901.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Carnegie will give $5,200,000 to libraries in New York.

A negro laborer at the capitol in Atlanta was arrested the other day for insulting white ladies as they passed the building.

C. G. Cain, who has a living wife in Gainesville, Ga., is now under arrest and in the cell at New Orleans for having the second wife there.

An order has been given by Comptroller General that the tax returns this year will be based upon property owned the 15th of March.

Two joint smashers in Kansas have been fined $25 each and cost. The judge said there was no law authorizing any one to destroy private property.

We welcome our northern friends and all others to Dahlonega who wish to make an investment in the mines or anything else, and trust that success will be their reward on every hand.

It seems to cost a big sum of money to move houses in Habersham county. The grand jury presentments show that the treasurer paid out $145.95 for the removal of a smoke house.

At Indianapolis it costs James C. Sweet $1,000 for a stolen kiss and an embrace from Mrs. Bonfield, damaged fixed by the jury. In Georgia it is quite different. Several have kissed us for nothing and glad to get the chance.

Atlanta has got to be a terrible place on account of thieves and robbers. It is a common thing there for ladies to have their pocket books snatched from them, men sandbagged and robbed and strange girls decoyed into houses of ill fame.

The extension of the Tallulah Falls railroad to Macon county, N. C., seems pretty certain now. The people of that county April 9th act on the question of voting the sum of $60,000 for its extension. Preliminary surveys are now being made.

Now just as Mrs. Nation got quiet in Kansas the convicts in the mines seized the guards guns, struck for less work and more to eat; killing and dieting on the miles worked under ground to keep from being starved to submit unless request is granted.

The Atlanta papers say, F. Gilman, who is developing a gold mine near Warner, N. C., is the estate of his half-brother, who died recently, in Connecticut, worth $250,000,000. Mr. Gilman passed through Blue Ridge, last Friday on his way to investigate the matter.—World.

It turns out that a wealthy man of Bryan county, who beat a bailiff over the head with a gun and took a prisoner away from him and was fined $1000 or twelve months in the changang, refused to pay his fine. He was sent to the changang who soon afterwards paid $100, the amount which had been paid for him, and he is now back at home attending to his home affairs. Justice, where are you?

The editor of the Dahlonega Nugget evidently carries a hands some life insurance policy, judging from the reckless manner in which he reports the fights, frolics and foot races in his town. It has got so that a man in Dahlonega is afraid to hug his cook, or to kiss his neighbor's wife for fear he will see it in the Nugget next week, name and all.—Blue Ridge World. No, no, brother! Our life is not insured. We are in the hands of the Lord who watches and protects us from all danger, or has so far. According to what some of the preachers and other good people say anything done is the "work of the Lord." Surely He wouldn't start us out on a mission and let us be stricken down by the way side.

Just printed a new lot of eols logo packet heads. Call and see them.

Drop into this office if you need any job work done promptly. Prices reasonable.

City Marshal Harbison was out Monday collecting female dog tax with a double barrel gun.

Interesting services were held at the Baptist church last Sabbath. Both Sabbath school and church.

Miss Sallie, daughter of Mrs. John Tate, residing near Porter Springs, has been on a visit to relatives in Dahlonega this week.

Mrs. Wallace Rogers has been on a visit to Cooyington, attending the North Georgia Conference of Ladies' Home Missionary Society.

Mrs. Mary Ann Shed, mother of Rev. J. J. Shed, died at her home some few miles from Dahlonega Monday night after being sick less than three days with pneumonia, aged about 70.

A new secret order has been organized in Dahlonega with Jim Tate as its president. He initiated a new member last Monday, who was very easy to catch on who can give the signs and grips as well now as an older member. Fee 50 cents.

Some of the ladies and children of Dahlonega enjoyed a straw ride last Saturday but didn't have near the pleasure that five persons did the next day on their return from Mt. Pisgah church in Chastee district. Two young men riding in a buggy, after attending services, were on their way home joined soon afterwards by three young ladies. Each young man held a lady in his lap while the third one sat down in the front part of the buggy. It was a joyful occasion, notwithstanding one of the young men was very bashful.

EXECUTOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Lumpkin county. By virtue of an order of the court of ordinary of Clarke county, granted at the November term, 1899, of said court there will be sold at public outcry on the first Tuesday in April, 1901, at the court house in said county, between the usual hours of sale, to the highest bidder the following interest in real estate, situated in said state and county, to-wit: An undivided one-half (1-2) interest in lot No. 709, 12th District, 1st Section. Also an undivided one-sixth (1-6) interest in lot No. 811, 12th District, 1st Section. Also an undivided one-third (1-3) interest in fractional lot No. 1204, 12th district, 1st section. Terms cash. This 1st day of March, 1901.

J. C. HUTCHINS, F. A. LUSCOMB, Executors of Estate of William Rutherford, Late of Clarke County.

AN ORDINANCE

Fixing the manner of paying street tax, and imposing a tax on all dogs in the city of Dahlonega:

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Dahlonega in council assembled,

That the sum of Three Dollars is hereby imposed upon every male inhabitant of the city under 25 years of age, who may be liable to perform road duty. The Chief Marshal is authorized to receive for acquittances of road tax for one-half the above sum for each six months of the year 1901. But nothing herein contained shall prevent any person, so liable, from performing road and street work in such manner, and for such length of time, not exceeding the time provided by law, as may be prescribed by the street committee, under the superintendence of the City Marshal, in lieu of the commutation tax above imposed. All persons failing to pay the above tax, or who shall fail to work on the streets when notified, shall be returned by the City Marshal to the City Clerk as defaulters: who the Mayor shall take such further steps to collect the same as authorized by Section 28 of the City Charter.

It is further ordained, That the tax known as the Sanitary Tax shall be continued of force, and the same imposed shall be collected in the manner heretofore provided by Ordinance of the council.

It is hereby further ordained, That the following taxes are hereby imposed on all dogs now in the corporate limits of the city, or which may be brought into the city at any time during the year 1901: That it is to say: One dollar for every male dog or male puppy, and two dollars and fifty cents on all female dogs puppy. The City Marshal is directed to provide tags or collars for all dogs on which the tax has been paid which tag or collar shall be paid by the owners of the dogs. The above tax on dogs must be paid in cash, and if not paid when demanded, the Marshal is authorized to have the same killed.

Done by order of the City Council as a regular meeting of the same March 6th, 1901, and ordered to be recorded and published.

W. P. PIERCE, Mayor.
O. J. LUKY, Clerk Pro Tem.
Recorded on minutes of council March 7th, 1901, page 117.
W. J. WOLLEY, City Clerk.

Prof. Vickery, whose health has been bad for several months—ever since he had the fever—is gradually improving. In taking out door exercise last Sunday he walked some five or six miles. The Professor is a good man. We like him, the citizens like him and so does each and every college student.

J. F. Gardner, of Delaware, Ohio, and C. V. Gardner his cousin from Deadwood, S. D., spent a while in our city this week. The former gentleman owns stock in both the Consolidated and Standard mines, who brought his cousin an expert miner, with him to see everything in person, so as to acquaint him fully whether they are good properties or not.

Scott Stringer and John Sullins had a fight over in Shoal Creek last Friday which lasted for some time before they were parted. They fell out about some hog: John struck Scott on the side of the head which caused him to fall himself. Then Scott covered him and went to biting which brought the "equal equal" from John, causing quite a crowd of people to gather on the battle ground to witness the occasion.

The other Sunday night, up in the country, a young man called on his sweetheart, who he loved better than himself, and remained so late that he could think of nothing to say, causing the lady to grow tired and sleepy, when he asked her to sing a song for him. "If you will wait only a little while longer I will erow for you," was the reply. He took the hint and left, and has not been back since, but still keeps dreaming about her and seeing the lady in his sleep.

Mrs. Cain has moved into her new house recently purchased from Joseph Ferguson.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Standard Gold Mining Company, will be held at the main office of the Company in the town of Dahlonega, Georgia, on Wednesday, April 8th, 1901, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors to serve for the ensuing year.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 22, 1904.

See notice to debtors and creditors elsewhere.

When visiting never fail to say a good word for Dahlonega.

Call and see our 10c lace remnants. B. R. MARRIERS & SONS.

The Blue Ridge was white with snow last Saturday morning.

At G. H. McGonnes is the place to buy watches, clocks and all kinds of jewelry.

The increase in the dog tax this year in Dahlonega is going to make them scarce than usual.

Geo. Duncan will move down to Gainesville. Judge Huff has purchased his town property.

Miller Davis, of Two Run, Ga., left this week for the Indian Territory to be gone a week or ten days.

Last Friday was a day for strange things. People gardened while it snowed, and besides this we saw a live snake.

Remember that the NUGGET promptly finds its way into the postoffice here every Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

F. L. Reese, who visited Atlanta last week, was accompanied back by his mother together with his sister, Mrs. Simmons.

A gentleman in London has become interested in this country, and is paying the cash for a number of lots of land in Lumpkin county.

A gentleman said the other day that he had to renew his subscription to the NUGGET else his wife would quit him. They all like to read it.

Keep your eye on Bruce's Art Gallery. He already has more than 200 mining and other views and is taking others. Any of these can be had at reasonable figures.

James Christian died at his home in Auraria at 5 o'clock on Friday morning after a very brief illness. Only a few days previous after visiting his sick brother who died with pneumonia fever, he came home sick and was not out very long, but grew worse and worse until he expired.

Judge Brittain, our present postmaster, and ex-oratory Tate are making a strong fight for the office. Mr. Tate carried round his petition some time ago, and now some who signed his petition are signing Judge Brittain's. What effect this will have we do not know.

Merchant Joe McGee paid Atlanta a short visit last week. He was summoned to go before the grand jury in the case of the U. S. State vs. Howard Walker charged with breaking open another person's letter which he called for at the postoffice here, taking therefrom a small check and using it.

Col. Huff went up to Chattoe district the other day to take some testimony in which Jonas Seabolt was concerned. Here he wrote on a table over a hundred years old the testimony from Mr. Seabolt who is 82 years of age, while in the room was a reel made more than two hundred years ago.

Last Friday with the teamsters, who had been hauling some heavy machinery up to Seabolt shoals for the Crown Mountain Co., returned to the city, a man was seen lying down on the heavy pieces of timber upon which had rested the pieces of iron, apparently very bad off, soon attracting the attention of many persons and led to an enquiry of who it was, where he was hurt, and all about the accident. It proved to be E. J. Jones of Gainesville, who had chambered a quart of mountain dew, creating a disturbance in the lower regions when the liquid reached its destination, causing this open air lying down ride to town, suddenly catching the many beautiful snow flurries when they struck his face. One and cost.

Col. Baker occupies his new office.

The annual meeting of the Standard Gold Mining Co. will hold in Dahlonega on the 3rd day of April next.

All kinds of roast and stakes and sausage both link and loose, at ten cents per pound by Howard & Thomas.

J. W. Birch of New Bridge, spent a short while in our sanctum last Tuesday. He is always a welcome visitor.

Gen. Warner, president of the Crown Mountain Co. has moved his headquarters to Dahlonega, we are glad to state.

Deputy Sheriff Williams occupies his position while City Marshal Harbison went to Atlanta this week as a witness in the U. S. Court.

The two boys who used their paint brush promiscuously the other night on buildings will receive attention when Marshal Harbison returns.

The gathering at the college last Tuesday and the roar of the muskets and cannon meant that the students were transplanting a pine tree near the college.

A friend of ours dropped a dollar bottle of eye on the public square last Saturday causing him to look as sad as if he had just been to some friends funeral.

Our old friend Mr. Carroll has had him a set of false teeth made which he carries in his pocket except on special occasions while talking to the ladies. When conversing with his male friends it makes no difference whether he has a single tooth in his head or not for we all know that he is clever and full of fun.

A nice line of small picture frames at a very low price. Eight day clocks $1.95 and $2.25; a splendid Morgan saddle $4.95; bird cages 50 to 70; a new line of steel enamel ware at the old price; several dozen linen window shades 12 to 45c; big box blueing Betin caps 8c tea bells 9 to 15c at B. Meaders & Sons.

L. G. Stowers and brothers, of Dawson county, brought in the crusher for the Crown Mountain mill last Monday. It required 14 mules to pull it and five days to make the trip, costing more than $200 to get it here from Gainesville, a distance of only 25 miles. Another evidence of the necessity of a railroad to Dahlonega.

On Monday the 25th will be the opening day of Mrs. Castleberry & Miss Asbury's Millinery Store. This is the first opening of the establishment which is located in the South end of the Dahlonega Hotel, where spring goods of up to date style will be found at reasonable prices, a lot of dress goods included and those not in stock will be ordered upon application.

Will Brookshire, a son of Bev. Brookshire, of Dahlonega, was cut twice by Seth Duncan, also of Dahlonega, out in Picken county last Friday and Seth is now in jail. They were not mad at each other. Seth was drinking who stopped up behind Will, it is said, and stuck him in the face. Will turned to defend himself when Seth stove his knife to the hollow near the shoulder blade and then swung on to a freight but was soon captured.

Dahlonega has two chances for a railroad. One from Gainesville and the other from Atlanta, but it looks now as if it will come from the former place. Men have taken hold of it who are workers but talk but little. If we were to tell you what we know about it you might get excited. Don't want to do this. Will say, however, that the act for application of charter is being prepared and will likely appear next week. Engineer will be on the line right away.

Joseph Ferguson is building a residence in the lot near Mrs. A. J. Reese.

R. H. Webb, of this city, attends church nearly every Sunday although he can't hear a single word that is said, but is a good man.

County School Commissioner Seabolt has been making the public school teachers happy for the past few days with a little cash which was due them.

Mr. Ashley's kitchen was destroyed by fire Saturday night. How it originated no one knows. The gentleman had visitors and they all had to come to the city for breakfast the next morning.

When subscribers move they can't expect to get their NUGGET unless they notify us so we can direct same to new address. This is why some of our subscribers have not been getting their papers.

Bill Woody planted seven acres in corn some time ago. Soon thereafter it snowed and turned very cold. Bill said he intended to save his crop if he had to get enough setting hens to protect it.

We understand that Col. Farrow will make arrangements to accommodate a much larger number of guests at Porter Springs the coming season than heretofore in years. His heard of Jerseys were sent up last week.

All the students have left the college dormitory and secured lodging elsewhere. The dormitory will never be a success unless the president or some of the teachers take charge of it and live on the grounds. This is our opinion.

Was there a lady teamster on the road between here and Gainesville last Monday? Reckon so for we saw a man out Saturday night who was he hunting some one to drive his wagon, and he went into a house where there were no male persons.

Call and see out new spring dry goods and notions. Also just received a new line of hats, shoes, mens' satelies, lunch boxes and etc. And our grocery line is fresh and complete. We sell Pillsbury's XXXX flour, the best on earth. Give us an order and be convinced. F. L. REESE.

The Atlanta Constitution of last Sunday contained fifty pages of very interesting information, telling about the advantages of Georgia and the entire south which will be of great benefit to it. The Constitution is a great paper and should be in the household of every family in Georgia able to take it.

The other night out on the river some young men and girls took possession of the vacant house where Andrew Adams died, owned or controlled by Prof. Boyd, and had a big time, conducting themselves in such a manner as to cause much talk. During the frolic one of them called on Andrew (the dead man) to come and take a hand. There is some talk of it resulting in a prosecution yet.

The bids for the rock pillars and approaches for the new bridge to be built at Neisler's Ford were opened by the ordinary last Monday and found to be as follows: W. B. Owen $838, W. H. McAffee $635, J. B. Stringer $599, J. H. Jenkins $620, W. H. Donaldson, W. T. Stringer and Allen Stringer $614. The contract was awarded to J. B. Stringer, he being the lowest bidder.

It is not long now until Easter, when nearly everybody will come out in their prettiest spring hats. Doubtless many poor persons, will go hungry for several days in order to save up money with which to buy a fine hat or spring suit just to be stylish. We don't want to do this way. We do not expect to cheat our stomach out of any thing, and if there is any change made in our rigging, it will be to throw away our old yarn socks and put on a ten cent straw sock so as to be comfortable—not stylish, for "poor quality" is the most disgusting thing on earth.

Col. Charters is down at Gainesville attending Hall Superior Court and while here can take in the sights of the street fair.

No Atlanta dailies reached us Saturday and our citizens had to content themselves reading the Bible and NUGGET last Sunday.

Capt. Joseph Allen visited Atlanta last week. His son, Harry, has secured a position in the drug store of Dr. Ashbury, 97 Peachtree street.

James Anderson, one of the mechanics working on the Crown Mountain mill made an ugly gash in his left foot with an ax last Saturday.

Presiding Elder Lewis filled the stand at the Methodist church here last Sunday and interested a large congregation with an excellent sermon.

Rev. Mr. Harrell, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, filled the pulpit last Sunday. His home is in Toccoa, Ga., who comes every third Sunday and fills his appointments.

Lum McDougal's little boy got his foot badly cut last Monday while at work down at the Barlow mine. It is very unfortunate for him. He is fatherless, is a poor boy and has a mother to support.

Our jovial good hearted friend R. W. Walker, left last Sunday for Gilmer county. Upon being asked how long he would be absent replied that he did not know, but went prepared for an extended trip, having carried his tooth brush and coarse comb.

Last Saturday Judge Huff sent off the applications of widows made in this county under the late act, being only seven in number. There are quite a number of soldiers widows in this county entitled under the law but are unable to give the desired information as laid down in the instructions.

During the winter when no work can be done on the farm, the pauper's home of this county seems to be a favorite place for some persons who had rather be idle than to perform any work. For several months six inmates have been fed, clothed and sheltered at that place, but now since spring has opened and work time come, they have all left out but two.

Some people here who have an idea of going to Ducktown had better delay their trip else they might regret it. Read the following from the Blue Ridge World: A special dispatch to the Knoxville Journal and Tribune, from Ducktown, says that a genuine case of small pox has been discovered there by Dr. Cope, and that the citizens have become greatly alarmed and applied to the county authorities for protection. Later, Ducktown has been quarantined. You can get in but can't get out.

Harris Postell, of this county, was arrested last Saturday by Marshal Harbison by direction of the sheriff of Fannin county, who has a warrant charging him with larceny from the house. Harris was recently released from jail in this county on bond charging him with a similar offense. There seems to be a question between the sheriffs of Lumpkin and Fannin as to which he belongs to. His bondsman here as soon as he was arrested for the Fannin county offense, gave him up to our sheriff who refuses to turn him over to the Fannin county officer. This officer says that Harris is his man because he sent the warrant by deputy Marshal Williams when he came through Blue Ridge with Harris, with instructions to hold him when he made bond on the Lumpkin county warrant. For some reason this was not done and as soon as the sheriff of Fannin learned of the prisoner being liberated he had Marshal Harbison arrest him, who put him in jail and sheriff Davis holds him. Some say that he is Fannin's prisoner and that our sheriff should not keep and feed him here at Lumpkin county's expense. The matter ought to be submitted to some legal authority so as to decide it at once. If he is not Lumpkin's prisoner, he ought not to have to foot the bill.

Mining Notes.

Anderson, the assayer, down at the Calkoun, from a clean up last Wednesday, shipped another gold brick to the mint, which will again help fill the coffers of the owner of this mine.

A new mining company is being organized in White county to be known as the Blue Ridge Mining Co. A charter is being asked for now. The capital stock is five hundred thousand dollars. The petitioners are George E. Whitney, W. A. Danforth, Frank B. Williams, I. L. Oakes and H. H. Dean.

We feel satisfied now that we ought to have had our picture taken the other day while looking at some of that fine ore from the Wallace vein, belonging to the Crown Mountain Co., for it is enough to make anybody look pleasing to see $1,200 ore with big pieces of gold sticking all over it, matters not whether he is directly interested or not. Prospectors are still busy and all other work of the company is moving forward.

A northern gentleman was wondering the other day why our native miners couldn't find rich veins as well while employed by the company as when at work for themselves. This can be answered in a nut shell. When a man is employed he is supposed to be governed by the instructions of the boss or foreman placed over him. If he raised his voice the reply at once would be "hush, child," by some of these fellows that have been brought here to show us how to dig gold that don't know as much about mining as a hog does about heaven.

It is reasonable to suppose that Mr. Ashley is being pleased with the results of his dredge boat run in operation in the Chattoe river, although it has not been completed quite a month, he is having timber gotten out for another to be put into the Chattoe river above the dam of the grist mill. Really, we understand that three others are to be built—making four in all. They are to be much larger than the present one. This small one will be moved into the Yalcoola Creek and a larger one will take its place, and the third is to be put into the Tennessee river in White county on Mr. Martin's property.

The Managers of the Consolidated Co. are having twenty tons of ore taken from the "Dorhead" vein down at the Barlow mine to be sent to Indiana for a test by the Hix process. This is one of the richest veins in this country. While Hattie Huff, a native miner, worked it, he at one time some years ago made five hundred tons of ore on an old style mill from about seven tons of ore. Of course he didn't save it near all for no mill has been invented yet that does. Under the chlorination system most of the gold is saved but it is a very expensive way of handling it. Now it is claimed by the managers of the Hix process that even better results can be obtained than is made by an assay, and at a nominal sum of from 5 to 15 cents per ton. If this is correct the "Doghead" vein and many others in this county belonging to the Consolidated Co., will pay big dividends and open the eyes of the people everywhere.

Witt & Campbell are keeping the Findley mill running with paying results. Mr. Campbell is a practical miner and only employs men having a knowledge of the business as was clearly shown last week by the test of ten tons of ore from the Findley made on the Consolidated Co.'s big mill. The same ore crushed at the old fashion mill at the Findley by Mr. Campbell, having copper plates, produced from $1.15 to $1.25 more gold per ton than that which was beat at the new improved mill with silver plates. No grease is used at the Findley, not even on the calms. They are greased with common 40 cent per gallon syrup, and the plates are kept in shape with vinegar and salt while at the Hand gallons of grease are used in the mill, and on the drilling machines, which get in the ore, on the plates and the gold can't be saved. The vice-president told us himself that from ore which assayed to be worth $7.50 per ton, not a particle was saved on their plates. Another lot of ore valued at $13.00 per ton only turned out a little over three dollars. This shows that something is wrong. The managers have been deceived in getting proper men to look after these things. They have brought high priced men here to attend to the most particular work, who didn't know their duties in every particular, and the result is the gold flows off caused by grease and too much water into the creek and river to be caught up by some mining boat. The machinery is all right (except there is too much of it at one place), the gold is there in paying quantities, but much of it will be wasted until the damaged plates are removed, new ones take their places and a man put in charge of them who understands his business.

"Gold and silver apples do not grow on trees in the South, but come as near it as in the most favored parts of the globe. With brains, nerve and hustle, the gold and silver will be manifest in the form of dollars." The foregoing short paragraph from Atlanta Sunday Constitution expresses a great deal in very little space. There are less failures here in gold mining than in any other business when judiciously and economically worked by men of experience. Bad management and extravagant expenditures are detrimental to anything you may go at. Sometimes men come into our midst, buy up mining property, do a lot of work for a show and bring down probably a shoe-maker, butcher, barber or laundryman and put him in charge of a lot of natives so as to "teach them how to mine." This "expert," who knows nothing about mining, is paid from four to ten dollars per day to "teach" men who know more about mining and can save more in one day, if they had the capital, than their boss could make in a month. The result in such operation, nothing is made, and the owner or owners will begin to curse the country and say our men can't work, or won't work if they know how. Just give some of these natives half as much as you are wasting on others, put them in charge and tell them to work to your best interest and see what a difference it will make. For an example, take the Barlow, one of the best mines in the county, now owned by the Consolidated Co. In 1866 Mr. Pride became its owner, who put up a steam mill right on the creek where there was abundance of water power to run it. He decided that the natives didn't know anything and sent to Tennessee and other places for men to mine at fancy prices. There was a wagon boss, mill boss, cut boss and a boss for every three or four men, and every boss from the one in charge of the cut on up were mounted on horses with an extra saddle for Sunday use. This went nice for awhile. But there was much going out and nothing coming in, soon resulting in a suspension. The property lay idle for years until being purchased by Col. Hand, who put in charge natives of practical experience. The mill was remodelled, put to running by water, and here is where John Huff, our present ordinary, made from $4,500 to $5,000 per month with an expense of about $1,000. This shows the difference and how a mine can be made to pay here when properly managed.

Notwithstanding the high price of liquor at the colored blind tiger in Dahlonega they get rid of common corn juice at 35 cents a pint.

You can always tell when two blockaders have been to Dahlonega and which sold the sorriest article by watching their customers. The one drinking the meanest liquor acts the fool the biggest in nearly every case.

It seems now that all the pension money is exhausted and widows will have to wait for their money until December.

The wife of J. H. Glazier, of Fulton county, now serving out a lifetime sentence in the penitentiary convicted of the crime of an assault with intent to rape, has applied for the pension of her husband, but Commissioner Lindsay says that the application will have to be made out by him, and that the pension is payable to him and not his wife. Besides this he is being cared for by the state.

THE Crown Mountain Gold Mining & Milling Co.

The Crown Mountain properties are situated in the very heart of the Georgia gold belt and is in the radiating center of all the leading gold veins of the Dahlonega district. They embrace what is believed to be the mother lode of the Appalachian Range.

The extensive and rich ore bodies in sight upon these properties assure long continued mining operations and the indisputable guarantee of the permanent and increasing value of the stock of "The Crown Mountain Co."

The projectors of this company were the first to revive the mining interest in this district in 1896. After three years of careful and exhaustive examination of all the mines of the district of reputation as gold producers, and they had the choice of all, they selected the Crown Mountain combination as the ideal gold mine of the district which would yield or produce the most gold with the least expense. This opinion is shown by all the mining engineers, mining experts, miners and citizens of any standing in the district who are familiar with the properties. As an evidence of this we have the fact that many of the citizens of the town of Dahlonega and vicinity have taken stock in this company than have in all the other companies combined that have organized in this district.

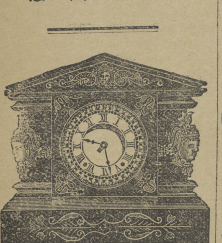

The company is to be managed by practical business men—who have given much of their time to mining and mining operations, and always with unvarying success.

The present director is for the most part composed of men who have had much experience in the mining enterprises, and under its efficient and economical management, and by reason of a visible gold supply that is practically inexhaustible, an investment in the stock of this company is undoubtedly safe.

The capitalization of the company is not commensurate with the visible productiveness of the properties and is meagre compared with the capitalization of other justly celebrated mines in the district, but the management believe it will be able to make the stock worth above par.

We invite all prospective investors to make a personal inspection of the mines. We also invite them to examine all the other mines in the district—compare the quality and quantity of the ore and the facilities for economically treating the same. We have no fears of where the choice will fall.

Until further notice of advance in prices, the stock of this company will be sold at the minimum rate of $50.00 per share. For further information apply to J. F. or J. H. Moore, Dahlonega, Ga., or Donovan & McCabe, 10 & 12 West Spring Street, Columbus, Ohio; or Gen. Warner, Marietta, Ohio.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.
From the Vindicator, Rochester, N. Y.

The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the remarkable result in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the paraffinized and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. The latest hazing outrage occurred at a girls' school in the north where a young lady was branded for life because she would not do all her associates demanded. She was being initiated into a secret order, and when she refused to do the unladylike act of standing on her head she was overpowered and a stencil having the order's monogram upon it pressed upon her forehead. Then nitrate of silver was used to burn the letters in. The poor girl resisted, but was powerless among so many. Now the doctors say those scars will go with her through life. This is barbarous. QUART BOTTLES.
A MOST WONDERFUL CURE.

A Grand Old Lady Gives Her Experience.
Mrs. Thankful Orlin Hurd lives in the beautiful village of Brighton, Livingston Co., Mich. This venerable and highly respected lady was born in the year 1812, the year of the great war, in Hebron, Washington Co., New York. She came to Michigan in 1840, the year of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too." All her faculties are excellently preserved, and possessing a very retentive memory, her mind is full of interesting reminiscences of her early life, of the early days of the State of Michigan and the interesting and remarkable people she has met, and the stirring events of which she was a witness. But nothing in her varied and manifold recollections are more marvelous and worthy of attention than are her experiences in the use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Hurd inherited a tendency and predisposition to scrofula, that terribly destructive blood taint which has cursed and is cursing the lives of thousands and marking thousands more as victims of the death angel. Transmitted from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family in one form or another. It may make its appearance in dreadful running sores, in unsightly swellings in the neck or groin, or in eruptions of varied forms. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may be known as catarrh in the head, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption.

Speaking of her case, Mrs. Hurd says: "I was troubled for many years with a bad skin disease. My arms and limbs would break out in a mass of sores, discharging yellow matter. My neck began to swell and became very unsightly in appearance. My body was covered with scrofulous eruptions. My eyes were also greatly inflamed and weakened, and they pained me very much. My blood was in a very bad condition and my head ached severely at frequent intervals, and I had no appetite. I had sores also in my ears. I was in a miserable condition, I had tried every remedy that had been recommended, and doctor after doctor had failed. One of the best physicians in the state told me I must die of scrofulous consumption, as the internal abscesses were beginning to form. At length I was told of Dr. Johnston, of Detroit, and his famous Sarsaparilla. I tried a bottle, more as an experiment than anything else, as I had no faith in it, and greatly to my agreeable surprise, I began to grow better. You can be sure I kept on taking it. I took a great many bottles. But I steadily improved until I became entirely well. All the sores healed up, all the bad symptoms disappeared. I gained perfect health, since then, and I firmly believe that JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is the greatest blood purifier and the best medicine in the wide world, both for scrofula and as a spring medicine." This remarkably interesting old lady did not look to be more than sixty, and she repeated several times, "I believe my life was saved by JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA."

I tried a bottle, more as an experiment than anything else, as I had no faith in it, and greatly to my agreeable surprise, I began to grow better. You can be sure I kept on taking it. I took a great many bottles. But I steadily improved until I became entirely well. All the sores healed up, all the bad symptoms disappeared. I gained perfect health, since then, and I firmly believe that JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is the greatest blood purifier and the best medicine in the wide world, both for scrofula and as a spring medicine." This remarkably interesting old lady did not look to be more than sixty, and she repeated several times, "I believe my life was saved by JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA."

Practical Hints.

As the boy grows up, make companions of them, then they will not seek companionship elsewhere. Let the children make a noise sometimes; their happiness is as important as your nerves.

Respect their little secrets; if they have concealments, worrying them will never make them tell, and patience will probably do the work.

Allow them, as they grow older to have opinions of their own; make them individuals, not mere echoes.

Remember that without physical health mental attainment is worthless; let them lead free, happy lives, which will strengthen both mind and body.

Bear in mind that you are largely responsible for your child's inherited character, and have patience with faults and failings. Talk hopefully to your children of life and its possibilities; you have no right to depress them because you have suffered.

If you have lost a child, remember that for the one that is gone there is no more to do; for those remaining there is every thing—hide your grief for their sakes.

Impress upon them from early infancy the action have results, and that they cannot escape consequences even by doing sorry when they have acted wrongly.

Teach boys and girls the actual facts of life, as soon as they are old enough to understand them, and give them the sense of responsibility without saddening them.—Ex.

An expert worker will turn as many as 60 bottles a minute and maintain this rate for ten hours a day, handling 36,000 bottles in a day's work. Is it any wonder that after years of this monotonous drudgery these men develop all kinds of strange moods and fancies? They become gloomy and taciturn and get the strangest ideas into their heads. Some of them persist that vaults are haunted and profess to see eyes glaring at them from obscure corners and figures flitting past them—possible the eyes and figures of men who have turned bottles before them and cannot refrain from revisiting the haunts of their earthly days.—Paris Letter.

It is not so much brilliancy of intellect and versatility of resource as persistency of effort and constancy of purpose that give success. When we see a young man that labor cannot weary, whom drudgery cannot disgust or dishearten, who meets reverses with an erect, unflinching bearing, we know that he will win. There is no keeping him down.—Success.

Headache often results from a disordered condition of the stomach and constipation of the bowels. A dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct these disorders and cure the headache. Sold by The Matthews Drug Co.

A Letter From Our Former Presiding Elder, Rev. E. R. Cook.

Mr. Editor:—For four years I lived and labored among the people of Dahlonega and North East Georgia. Their uniform kindness and generous hospitality endeared these people to me and I shall always love the people and that mountain country.

I flatter myself that there are a good many of the readers of the Nugget who will be glad to know that we are most delightfully situated among splendid people. Washington, Wilkes county, Ga., has long been regarded one of the choicest appointments in our Conference. Never have we received a more cordial welcome, or been the recipient of more thoughtful kindnesses, but our sorrows which began with the death of my little boy in Dahlonega have not yet ended. My wife's mother, Mrs. F. R. Singleton, passed away three weeks ago. When she died I was by the bedside of my father expecting every hour to be his last. He still lingers but is in a very precarious condition.

Mrs. Singleton was known to all the older citizens of Dahlonega. They will hear of the death with sadness. A purer, better woman never blessed this earth. A tender, faithful mother, her noble "children now rise up and call her blessed."

I read the Nugget, indeed all the family read it, with very great interest. I am rejoiced to know from the Nugget and from other sources, that the people of Dahlonega like their new preacher. I was sure they would, for a purer, more faithful pastor nor better preacher than Wallace Rogers is hard to find. Mr. Editor, stand by the preachers (who are worthy). They are doing the noblest work done of any set of men on this earth. They stand for that which is right, and their effort is to lift up our people to higher better things. The church is not free from faults, her members are not perfect and yet all the good that is and will be done has and will be done largely through the instrumentality and influence of the church. Close up the churches, drive out the preachers and what awful conditions would soon prevail. Some men who belong to the church are far from as good as they ought to be, but without the restraining influence of the church they would be a thousand times worse. Every man who loves virtue, and loves his wife and children and has any care for the welfare of his country ought to be a friend to the church, for the church stands for all these things.

Dahlonega is richer to-day in the highest best sense for the lives and influence of Col. Moore, Col. Boyd, Uncle Good, Hughes; such women as sister Nancy Wimpy and others that might be mentioned. They were what they were because of the influence of the church. But I did not intend to write an exhortation. I simply wanted to ask the people of Dahlonega not to forget us, as we shall never forget them and to remember us at the Throne of Grace when they prayed.

Yours, sincerely,
ELLISON R. COOK.

Mrs. C. E. VanDeusen, of Kilbourn, Wis., was afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation for a long time. She says, "I have tried many preparations but none have done me the good that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have." These Tablets are for sale at The Matthews Drug Co., Price, 25 cents. Sample free.

LUMPKIN COUNTY.

Occurrences More Than Half A Century Ago.

We copy from White's Statistics things concerning Lumpkin county which occurred many years gone by as follows:

Population, Taxes, Representation:—The census of 1845 gives to this county 8,979 whites, 1,175 blacks; total, 10,154. Amount of taxes paid into the State treasury, for 1848, $1,689 66. Sends two representatives to the Legislature.

Post Offices:—Amicalola, Auraria, Barrettsville, Calhoun, Crossville, Dahlonega, New Bridge, Pleasant Retreat, Mechanicsburg. Original Settlers:—The original settlers were C. J. Thompson, Colonel Riley, Gen. Fields, Lewis Ralston, Mr. Leathers, and J. Blackwell.

Climate, Diseases, Longevity:—The climate of this county is pleasant, but subject to great and sudden changes. Some fever prevails on the water-courses, Lumpkin can show a long list of persons who have attained to a great age. Mrs. Young, now living, is over 100. John J. Williams is over 90—was in the battle at King's Mountain. Mr. John Hames is over 100; Samuel Evans, 85; Mr. Harper, 89; John Alexander, 84. Mr. Allen died in this county at the age of 115 years; Mr. Watts died at the age of 90; Mr. James Boyd was over 100 years, and his wife, Nancy Boyd, over 94 years. Richard Ledbetter, a revolutionary soldier, at his death was 100 years old; Mrs. Smith lived to the age of 103; Mrs. Sally Bright died at the age of 112.

Character, Amusements:—The gold mines have brought together a large number of persons, and consequently the population of this county is composed of a great diversity of character. Many of the operatives in the mines are dissipated and regardless of the future. The permanent inhabitants are intelligent and spirited. Fishing, dancing, hunting, and picnics, are the favourite amusements.

Gold Mines:—Dr. Singleton's mines embrace 2,080 acres in the vicinity of Dahlonega, most of which were originally purchased for farming purposes, but subsequently found to contain gold. Some have been profitable, others would hardly pay the cost of working. On one single branch, more than 150,000 pennyweights of gold have been found. Some of the branch mines have been worked over, three or four times, and proved a source of profit to the operators.

We consider this an appropriate place to give a general account of the gold mines in Cherokee Georgia, for which our thanks are due to Dr. Stevenson, formerly of Canton, a gentleman of science, and perfectly familiar with the mining operations.

The following are the principal gold mines in Lumpkin county:—Singleton's mines, near Dahlonega, embracing more than 2,000 acres.

Calhoun's mine, on the Chestatee river, has yielded enormously.

J. E. Calhoun's mine, on the Chestatee river, five miles from Dahlonega, has been a very rich deposit mine, and is not yet exhausted.

Cain creek and Yahoola creek are celebrated localities. On the latter is the famous lot, 1052, which once created such a sensation among the speculators. (To be continued).

Pity and Beauty

The most beautiful thing in the world is the baby, all dimples and joy. The most pitiful thing is that same baby, thin and in pain. And the mother does not know that a little fat makes all the difference.

Dimples and joy have gone, and left hollows and fear; the fat, that was comfort and color and curve—all but pity and love—is gone.

The little one gets no fat from her food. There is something wrong; it is either her food or food-mill. She has had no fat for weeks; is living on what she had stored in that plump little body of hers; and that is gone. She is starving for fat; it is death, be quick!

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the fat she can take; it will save her.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for a free trial, its appreciable taste will surprise you.

Questions for Women

Are you nervous? Are you completely exhausted? Do you suffer every month? If you answer "Yes" to any of these questions, you have the Wine of Cardui cure. Do you appreciate what perfect health would be to you? After taking Wine of Cardui, thousands like you have realized it. Nervous strain, loss of sleep, cold or indigestion, and what ails you, are not noticeable at first, but day by day steadily grow into troublesome complications. Wine of Cardui, used just before the menstrual period, will keep the female system in perfect condition. This medicine is taken quietly at home. There is nothing like it to help women enjoy good health. It costs only $1 to test this remedy, which is endorsed by 140,000 cured women.

Mrs. Lena T. Friesberg, East St. Louis, Ill., says: "I am physically a new woman, by reason of my use of Wine of Cardui and Theodore's Black Draught."

THE NUGGET

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 29, 1901.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Ex-constable Harrison left a life insurance of $40,000.

Safe blowers have been getting in their work at Lula, Ga.

Mrs. Nation and her negro publisher have dissolved partnership.

Ellijay has quarantined against Ducktown on account of the small pox at the latter place.

Five hundred head of cattle were shipped from Columbus, Ga., one day last week to Cuba.

John Rockefeller's income is $40 a minute. It is useless to say that he is not a country editor.

One hundred and fourteen negroes were arrested last Friday in Atlanta by the police for loitering.

Mrs. Nation undertook to make a public address at Atchison, Kansas, the other day but was hooted at by a mob so that she had to crawl in and get quiet.

Mrs. Lizzie Naramore, living near Cold Brook, Miss., killed her six children with an ax and a club while in a fit of insanity last week, and then attempted to kill herself.

Great preparations are being made for the United Confederate Veterans reunion at Memphis on the 28th, 29th and 30th of May. There will be a brilliant flower parade, fire work, etc.

By a special act of the legislature a bad negro criminal was hanged publicly in Kansas the other day. This is right. All hangings should be public so as to be a warning to others.

A revenue raid in Lincoln county the other day resulted in Deputy Marshal Whitely, of Augusta, and a moonshiner being killed and Deputy Marshal W. A. Hoss, of Thomason seriously wounded.

The Constitution seems worried about pistol toters. What would become of a man in Atlanta on the streets after dark and the thieves know that he carried no pistol? Many are sandbagged and robbed as it is.

John Miller of Fannin county, thought that he would get out of a misdemeanor case by joining the army, but the military authorities at Atlanta turned him over to the sheriff last week and he is now back in jail. The way of the transgressor is hard.

A negro man in Atlanta was fined $100 for walking the streets with Mrs. Mattie Charles the other night. The woman ought to have been fined also. She claimed that she was a female detective but she could have found plenty of white escorts had she made it known no doubt.

It is reported that President McKinley has decided to fill all offices with white men. Had he done this during his first term the republican party in the south would have been much stronger. Every man is supposed to work to the interest of his own color when in a position to do so, and the president giving fat offices to negroes in preference to white men caused many of the white republicans to fall out with him.

Talk of an electric line from Gainesville to Dahlonega and a system for this city has again been revived. The people hope to see a line built here before a great while, and electric lights put in to supply the city. The town is growing and it is believed that an electric line would pay here, with cars connecting the cotton mills of the city and traversing the principal streets. The development of the water power at the river, which an electric line would mean, would be a big thing for the city. Gainesville is booming and an electric railway and power plant is one of the certainties of the future.—Georgia Cracks.

We received another card by Friday's mail from a person in a distant county requesting us to send them the Nugget and they would "pay for it at the end of the year." We would like to accommodate all persons wishing to read our paper but can't afford to make any such arrangements as this. We wish to keep in a better condition than a church mouse, and it takes means to do it. We are not on any pension roll, neither do we hold any office. We follow not the ministerial profession but are in the newspaper business for a living. Please bear this in mind in the future. By doing so you will save postage.

Last Friday a couple of women appeared in our city who created some talk among the curious. They were on their way to Atlanta, where they said they lived, after a two weeks visit to relatives in the upper part of the county. The old woman was so drunk that she staggered and dropped her bottle on the street, which was quickly picked up and put out of sight by uncle Dock Anderson who was acting the part of a Good Samaritan on this occasion. They carried a big roll of money and a pistol, were well dressed and the young one was quite handsome. The old one was the divorced wife of Pierce Cody who used to be here years ago and the other was his daughter. They departed the next morning.

Prof. Steed and wife were called to Macon yesterday by a dispatch to the bedside of dangerously sick relatives.

APPLICATION FOR CHARTER.

GEORGIA—Lumpkin County: To the Superior Court of said County: The petition of A. J. Warner, of Marietta, Ohio, W. A. Carlisle, of Marietta, Ohio, and J. F. Moore, of Lumpkin county, respectfully shows:

1. That they desire for themselves, their associates, successors and assigns to become incorporated under the name and style of "NORTH GEORGIA ELECTRIC COMPANY."

2. The term for which they desire to be incorporated is twenty years, with the privilege of renewal at the end of that time.

3. The capital stock of the corporation is to be fifty thousand dollars divided in to shares of one hundred dollars each, and the petitioners desire the right to increase said capital stock to a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

4. They desire the right to commence business when ten per cent of the capital stock shall have been subscribed and actually paid in.

5. The object of the proposed corporation is pecuniary profit and gain to its stockholders, and petitioners desire that said corporation be invested with power to do a general electric business, to construct for the building and equipping of electric railroads and street railways, to establish and maintain electric plants, to sell and furnish electric light and electric power to municipal and private corporations and to the public at large, to establish and maintain water works for the purpose of selling and supplying municipalities and persons with water for manufacturing, mining, sanitary, drinking, or other purposes; to buy and sell electric supplies, equipments and utensils; to carry on the business of a contractor and to do construction work in the building of railroads, factories, mills or other works; to buy and sell merchandise; and to exercise the usual powers and to do all things necessary or proper to which pertain to or may be connected with the business of a construction company.

6. They desire the right to contract for, lease, buy and hold such real estate as may be useful or proper in the conduct of their business, and to sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise dispose of or encumber the same; to issue bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness as the interests of the corporation may require.

7. They desire, as such corporation to have the right to sue and be sued; to have and use a common seal; to make and procure such regulations and by-laws for its government as may be needed or proper and not contrary to law; to constitute and elect a Board of Directors and such officers as are usual and as may be prescribed by such by-laws; and they further desire all general powers and privileges which may be conferred upon and are incident to incorporation of said state of Georgia which by law are conferred by the Superior Courts.

8. The principal office of said corporation shall be at Dahlonega, Georgia; and petitioners desire the right to establish and maintain such branch offices as the stockholders of said corporation may elect to establish. Wherefore petitioners pray to be made a body corporate under the name and style aforesaid and that a charter be granted them conferring the rights, privileges and powers herein set forth. PRAYER AND CHARTERS. Petitioners Attorneys: Filed in office March 28, 1901. J. H. Moore, C. S. C. GEORGIA—Lumpkin County: J. H. Moore, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, do certify that the foregoing copy of the original petition for incorporation of "North Georgia Electric Company," as the same appears of file in said office. Witness my official signature this March 28, 1901. JOHN H. MOORE, Clerk Superior Court.

Cases Filed in Clerk's Office.

Tuesday was the last return day for the filing of cases for Lumpkin Superior Court, and the following are the new ones docketed on the clerk's books, to-wit:

Emma Parshall vs. M. F. Wheelchel—complaint.

Whittle Brady vs. The Dahlonega Consolidated Gold Mining Company—damage.

Geo. A. King vs. J. W. Woodward—complaint.

E. M. Swanson vs. D. N. Jarard—complaint.

James W. Thomas vs. The Dahlonega Consolidated Gold Mining Company—damage.

F. M. Wheelchel vs. John Poor—ejectment.

D. A. London vs. James A. London—complaint.

Bath Free vs. Goodman Free—alimony.

The McKee Marble Co. vs. W. S. Huff—complaint.

Martin L. Anderson vs. Sam F. Teal—complaint.

Frank McDonald vs. Onie McDonald—divorce.

The people of Ducktown, it is said, are greatly alarmed at the appearance of small pox there. Expert physicians declared that it is genuine small pox, and efforts are being made to quarantine against it, but it is said to be a difficult undertaking as probably more than a hundred people were exposed to it before they knew for certain that it was small pox. Blue Ridge World.

Birmingham, Ala., and many places in Georgia, were visited by a destructive tornado last Tuesday morning awhile before day. The worst being at Birmingham. In this city the dead numbered 25 and the injured more than 200, and the destruction to property amounted to over a quarter million dollars. Near Buena Vista, Ga., a passenger train was blown from the track, and strange to say that no one on it was even hurt. Several lives were lost in Georgia.

APPLICATION FOR CHARTER.

GEORGIA—Lumpkin County: To the Secretary of the State of Georgia:

The petition of J. F. Moore, W. A. Carlisle, W. J. Worley, H. D. Gurley and E. H. Baker, residents of Dahlonega, Lumpkin county, Georgia, and H. H. Dean, Z. T. Castleberry, D. E. Evans, Howard Thompson and M. C. Brown, residents of Gainesville, Hall county, Georgia, shows:

(1) That they desire to form a Railroad corporation to be known as "Gainesville and Dahlonega Electric Railway Company."

(2) The Railroad of said Company is to be about twenty-five miles in length; the general direction of said road will be from Dahlonega in a southeasterly direction to Gainesville, Georgia, with an extension running from Gainesville, Georgia, to the site of what is known as the "Vesta Mills" and to New Holland in said county of Hall.

(3) The said road will run through Hall and Lumpkin counties, Georgia, and from the principal places from which and to which it is to be constructed is Dahlonega, Georgia, and Gainesville, Georgia.

(4) The amount of the proposed capital stock of said Company is five hundred thousand ($500,000) dollars to be divided into shares of one hundred ($100) dollars each, all of the said capital stock to consist of common stock.

(5) The number of years this corporation is to continue is one hundred and one.

(6) The place where its principal office is to be located, is Dahlonega, Georgia, with such branch offices as the stockholders may from time to time elect to establish.

(7) Petitioners do intend in good faith go forward, without delay, to secure subscriptions to the capital stock and to construct, equip, maintain and operate said railroad.

Wherefore they pray that they be incorporated together with their associates and successors, under the laws of this State and they show that they have given four weeks notice of their intention to apply for charter by publication of this petition in the Dahlonega Nugget and Dahlonega Signal and Gainesville Eagle, being the newspapers in which sheriffs advertisements are published, each, all of the said notices, once a week for four weeks before the filing of this petition. THE NUGGET

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 29, 1901.

Next Monday is all fools day. College stationery for sale by J. F. Moore.

Go to F. L. Reeses and get you one of those nice trunks.

The colored Baptist church is supplied with a new large bell now in ringing position.

Don't forget the big lot of nice spring goods at the Union Store. A large variety—something to suit everybody.

A little six-weeks-old child of Aoy Clemons died on Thursday night of last week a short ways from Dahlonega.

Almon Coffee, colored, is behind the bars again for misdemeanor; true bill having been returned at last term of the court.

More guano is being used in Lumpkin county this year than was ever known before. Causes Owing to such a demand for produce.

R. Palmour, of Dawson county, was in Dahlonega last Wednesday informed us that he had no notion of moving to Gainesville, although he has recently purchased property there.

Christian Wahl, of Milwaukee, Wis., arrived in our city last Wednesday. Mr. Wahl used to own the mines now belonging to the Consolidated Co., who still has stock in the Company.

The champion debators selected for commencement of N. G. A. College are: From Pluma Society: Carl Shultz and Joe H. Byers. From Decora: S. A. Harris and Will Chambliss.

The plans for the young ladies dormitory of the N. G. A. College are now ready, to be constructed on the corner of the college lot opposite the old Baptist church where the janitor now resides.

Bill Woods is a hustler. During the hunting season he is out in the mountains killing all kinds of game, and when that is over, he comes to town and acts the part of a physician by treating the boys having bad blood, getting them in good shape for the warm months.

Henry Whitaker, a "dark complected" negro, part Indian, had a misunderstanding the other night with his wife and during the fracas the man was hit on the jaw with a chair, making him so mad that he picked up the child and cast it at his companion, after which he hitted up his old horse, put into the wagon his household goods and pulled for another shore while the woman sent for the marshal.

Among the northern visitors last week was G. E. Watt, a merchant of Ohio. We didn't have the pleasure of meeting the gentleman, being absent from our office when he called, but after looking around a couple of days became interested enough in this section to leave a dollar where we could get it so as to learn more of it through the columns of the Nugget with a promise of visiting our city again in the future.

We notice that newspapers and correspondents of Gainesville have had a good deal to say about the large increase of freight to that city for the past few months. While doing this they forget that Dahlonega is in it. Thousands and thousands of pounds of freight have been shipped to Dahlonega via Gainesville and we get no credit for it. During the past three months one firm in Dahlonega has had more than 70,000 pounds of freight hauled which had to be shipped to Gainesville, it being the nearest railroad point to our city. And the freight of the Dahlonega Consolidated Company no doubt amounted to seven or eight thousand dollars last year, saying nothing of the freight received by other companies and merchants here. Remember this please, when you are wringing again.

Peach trees are blooming. Tax Receiver Stargel is growing worse, we are sorrow to say.

Mrs. Ballinger, of Gainesville, is on a visit here to spend several months.

Wm. Cronan, of Lumpkin county, was wedded to Miss Cora Watkins, of Fannin last Sunday.

Something new occurring every day. A young man has sued his father, being the latest.

Dahlonega has had no kidnappers so far. Some of the boys are so bad here that if they were caught would be turned loose like a piece of hot iron.

Will Rice has been acting as city marshal this week during the absence of Marshal Harrison, who had to attend the U. S. Court again in Atlanta as a witness.

We are glad to state that Mrs. W. J. Worley, who has had a severe attack of the grip is some better though she is so feeble it will take a long time for her to recover.

Miss Pickett, after being in charge of Hall's Villa some nine or ten months, left for her home in Tennessee last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard are in charge of the house.

James Seabolt, formerly of Lumpkin county, died in White county last Saturday whose remains were brought to this county and buried in Macadons cemetery on Monday.

A. E. W. Crisson, you will find a nice line of spring goods of every variety. Also shoes and country produce and even revenue stamps. If you wish to get the worth of your money this is the place to go.

Joseph W. Davis, after being in the west for a number of years has returned with his family to his old home in Lumpkin county. Mr. Davis is one of our old school mates and we are glad that he has decided to make this county his future home.

If you need anything in the view line see the work of Davidson on College street. He makes views of buildings four for $1.00 anywhere within the incorporation and guarantees work equal to any you can produce. Both interior and exterior views are taken. See his work before buying elsewhere.

We are glad to learn that Joseph Phillips, who was interested in the mining operations in Dahlonega for more than a year, is now assistant secretary of a mining company in Mexico. The mill of the company only has two stamps but it is a big thing for that country where the ore is worth several hundred dollars per ton.

Several persons, among them a woman, went out to the bar a short distance from the city and supplied themselves with jugs of liquor which kept them mellow on Sunday. In fact there was more drinking than we have seen at any one time since Christmas, but the liquor was of a good quality and all partaking behaved very nicely.

Will Brooksher, who was seriously cut with a knife in the hands of Seth Duncan out at the marble works recently, was brought home last Saturday. He is out and will soon be healed up again and all right. Duncan is in jail, having been bound over for an assault with intent to murder. The same day he cut Brooksher he was put out of Tates store for bad conduct. The key was in the door on the outside and Seth closed it and amused himself by throwing lighted pieces of paper into the room where kerosene was kept through a broken glass. This will be charged up to him also. Besides this he was forged from the train by the conductor, who had to knock him down twice to keep from being cut with his knife, and then the conductor had to jump on the train and move out to keep from killing Seth or being killed. It is a very unfortunate occurrence for a young man to get into, and one which he will long remember after being carried before Judge Gober.

Dr. Howard is about recovered from his late attack of the grip.

Call and see our 10c lace remnants. B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

Don't forget that T. J. Smith has received his spring goods and is the leader of low prices.

It is rumored that the Bell Telephone Co. will likely buy the Dahlonega and Gainesville line.

Coffins and caskets purchased from Stow will be delivered free of charge to any place within three miles of Dahlonega.

Frank Meaders, after an absence of some time down the country selling horses, returned home last Sunday.

Prof. Frank Adams, of Ohio, spent a few days here since our last issue with other northern gentlemen and a lady looking over the mines.

Last Saturday night a certain man returned home and found his wife entertaining a young gentleman with a smile on her face almost as big as an ostrich egg, causing trouble for awhile.

The city council couldn't agree upon anything at their last meeting scarcely except the dog tax. This was unanimous and raised the taxes so high as to cause a number of dogs to be sent out of town, and the money received from this source will not likely amount to any more than former years.

A certain young man in Cane Creek district while out on a courting expedition the other night heard the father of the girl coming, causing him to leave out in such haste that he got another fellows hat, which greatly differed in size, color and looks to his causing him to look quite odd until the change could be made.

Don't get excited about the proposed railroad to Dahlonega. Just go quietly along. Heretofore there has been much talk and but little done. Let it be reversed this time, but to say the least of it everything looks very favorable when three different parties—from Ohio, New York and Philadelphia, seem to be anxious to build it.

Mr. Hood Harris and Miss Annie Crisson, his cousin, a daughter of Mrs. M. W. Crisson, after being wedded in the big road last Saturday near the city, left out for Ducktown, Tenn. The next day Mrs. Crisson came in search of her daughter and when learned what had happened was very much surprised and grieved. The ceremony was performed by Squire W. J. Worley.

Six new cases of small pox developed in a week at Ducktown, so it is reliably reported. More than a hundred persons have been exposed to it and there is a chance now of its being spread over the whole country by parties who are leaving that place, and if some steps are not taken to prevent it, it will likely reach Dahlonega. Some who came from there state that it is only chicken pox, but they know better. An expert went from Knoxville to investigate it and pronounced it small pox some weeks ago and the place has been quarantined, but people slip out at night and leave.

Quite an interesting letter will be found on our first page from Ray, Ellison R. Cook, which will be read with interest by his host of friends here. It is useless for us to say that this able divine is a good man for everybody here acquainted with him knows it. As will be seen he is willing to worry with those who half way try to do right and favor keeping a class of people in the church who would be worse were they expelled, thinking it is best. We differ with him, although we do not belong to the church. You may take a sorry road hand and put him to working out his time and he will act so that he becomes disgusting and the rest of the hands get so they don't care whether they work or not, and frequently the result is they will send off after a gallon of liquor and nearly all get on a spree and go home without performing their duties.

The directors of the Consolidated Co. held a meeting in their office last Monday night but let out nothing for publication.

For sale, two wagons—1 one-horse wagon and the a two-horse wagon. Apply to M. J. Williams.

We have received quite a lot of various styles of new type and a good supply of stationery. Now if you are needing any job work done send it in.

The parties who are to erect the pillars for the new bridge to be built across the Chestatee river, fled their bond with the ordinary last Wednesday.

All kinds of canned goods at H. D. Garleys. 2lb. standard tomatoes 6-14c per can; 8lb. peaches 10c can. All other canned goods at correspondingly low prices.

The defendants having cases in the U. S. Court for violating the revenue law in Lumpkin county, who were tried this week received ranging from one to four months imprisonment in jail.

Your attention is directed to the advertisement of Mrs. Strickland, who has just returned from Atlanta with a large supply of everything needed in her line. Mrs. Strickland has been in the business here for fourteen years and knows how to select the best, nicest and cheapest goods in the market so as to suit her many customers.

The last acts of the legislature have been received at Judge Huff's office ready for the various officers entitled to them by law. These acts contain about 500 pages, being "little in much." Among the acts is one to prevent the killing of pheasants for five years. It might have been a good move for the tax payers had a law been passed for the legislature to convene no more until pheasants could be legally killed again.

Dahlonega and Lumpkin county was visited by a very heavy rain and wind storm on last Monday, doing much damage to the streets and roads. During the time the street shaft which was cut by Burns and Butler, caved in and left a big opening in the street which will cost several dollars to have it filled up and fixed proper. The city authorities claim that it was leased to Wash Jenkins and others who were to make the road good after getting through mining. In the country the roads had been fresh worked at some places which will all have to be done over.

It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that a movement is on foot again for the construction of an electric line from Gainesville to Dahlonega by General Warner of Marietta, Ohio, and other well known men of business sense. General Warner is a railroad builder and understands his business, makes no big display but takes hold of this enterprise with the intention of building it, who, if he finds it a practicable route can raise the means for its construction at once. He has personally examined the route via Auraria, and Mr. Henderson, an engineer, is looking over the ground by Neisler's Ford. Leading citizens of Gainesville now express themselves as highly in favor of the enterprise and not as many obstructions are expected as heretofore.

Mining Notes.

We understand that the Mary Henry mill is soon to be started up, drifting in the shaft having already begun.

Mr. Howe still continues his prospecting. He is making a general and thorough examination of the mining belt.

The Betz mine is giving good results since the owner has taken it out of the hands of a foreigner and put it in charge of a Georgian miner of practical experience.

Mr. Maxwell resumed his development work on the Capps & Bowen property as soon as he returned from Knoxville. He has great confidence in it as being a good gold mine, but is taking the proper steps—fully convincing himself that it will pay before making any big outlay of money for machinery.

The shaft on the Standard property, known as the Tahloneka, has reached a depth of one hundred and some five or ten feet. A small sulphuretted vein or two have already been struck, but it will be some time before the main vein is hit on account of the shaft being started too high up on the hill by a non resident who cared not for the interest of the company, causing a large amount of unnecessary work to be done before getting to it. The work on the incline near by is progressing nicely. The vein shows much free gold and will pay well if properly and economically managed.

Geo. W. Jenkins and Mr. Stumm are working on the Todd lot under a lease with a splendid showing and good chance to make money. The vein or veins were struck by Mr. Jenkins after a very short search one day last week. He had only cross cut for about ten feet when he struck three gold bearing veins, the best being worth about $10 per ton. Many years ago a very rich vein was discovered on the cemetery lot just above by some men while digging an old negro's grave which runs through the Todd lot. Should they strike this they will be made rich at once.

The various tests of gold ore taken from different veins in Lumpkin county, by the Hix process is wonderful and astonishes every one who have heard of them. So surprising are the results that people go many miles to Indiana to see Mr. Hix make the tests before being convinced. These tests show this country to be far richer than even the natives even dreamed of, saving much more gold than can be produced by an assay. At the Doghead vein, belonging to the Consolidated Co., a 75 ton assay by this process proved it to be worth $1,296.80 per ton, where H. H. Huff only made a little over $70 per ton. So far this is the richest ore that has been tested by the Hix process from this county. The highest concentrates from Lumpkin ran $174.00 per ton, and the best black sand from the Yahoola $100.72 per ton.

We have been written to personally by stockholders of both the Standard and Consolidated Gold Mining Company's more than once requesting a true report of the operations here as far as we are able. This we will give not only of these mines but all others coming under our knowledge. We have not ought against any of the gentlemen running them, be they experts or not. We want all the mines to prosper. It is to our interest and the whole country's interest for them to do so. Some grave mistakes have been made by some body in the management of the mines of the Consolidated Co., by putting men in charge at big salaries who are ignorant of their duties or are allowed only from ninety cents to one dollar per day. We know of bosses receiving from two to two and a half per day who admit that they know nothing about gold mining. A general revolution will have to be made at the Hand before they can profitably operate it. Have a general superintendent at a reasonable price who understands mining in all of its branches. Get rid of the know nothings and allow a mill superintendent $75 per month instead of $175—good ones can be secured for $75. Then use more economy all along the line, and all the stockholders will be made to smile at the results.

The Findley shoot has been struck again. This time by Geo. Oden and Manuel Garret, two native miners, in the employ of J. B. Witt, who secured a lease on the property for six months, in December from its owner, The Dahlonega Consolidated Company, who will run it day and night until his lease expires. Every citizen of Dahlonega, having been here for any length of time knows that this vein is by far the richest of any ever discovered in this county, and will be many thousand dollars into Mr. Witt's hands if this pocket is as good as former ones—the largest amount of gold taken from a single pocket being eighteen thousand dollars, the last one struck by Mr. King fourteen years ago produced more than two candy jars full of nuggets—weight not known—so stated by the hands engaged at the time. When King couldn't get his lease renewed he lost the vein on purpose and the laborers moved off. Much money has been spent by others searching for it, but all efforts have been fruitless until now. Some three weeks ago Messrs. J. B. Witt, Low Christy and Wm. Campbell formed a co-partnership to search for it, but all became disheartened a few days ago and "pulled" out except Mr. Witt, who decided to try it a few days longer. At the same time sending for J. J. Roberts, of Jasper, one of the parties who worked it last, but Oden and Garret struck the edge of it before Mr. Roberts came. He found that they were within a few inches of the mark he made 14 years ago. The rock is held together by the gold. No less than 500 pennyweights were blasted out at the last shot on Wednesday afternoon, some of the loose nuggets being as large as a man's little finger, and the vein is getting better. The Company started a tunnel this week still lower than the present one, which will likely strike it at another place.

Last Monday, had it not been raining, one hundred hands, or as many as could have been secured, would have been put to work finishing the canal up at the power plant of the Crown Mountain Co., which will require about thirty days. All other work is moving along in a business like way. And while on this subject it will not be a miss for us to say that the manner of development of the mines of this company as well as the scope and design of the plant that is now being established, are satisfactory proof that the gentlemen in charge know their business. It is apparent on every hand that the promoters of this large enterprise recognize that successful mining depends not alone upon the possession of fine ore bodies but equally upon economical management, and the application of technical skill adopted to the peculiar conditions existing in Georgia. Under the able management of J. F. Moore and a corps of assistants that have been associated with him in hydraulic-placer mining for a score of years, the work on these properties is progressing rapidly and is convincing evidence of experienced foresight, skillful direction and the most drastic economy. Mr. Moore's reputation throughout Georgia has been that of a successful hydraulic-placer miner, and Gen. Warner has a fixed reputation, not only as the constructor of numerous railroads and electric lines, and as the operator of coal mines and oil wells, but also as one of the successful pioneers of deep quartz mining in the South. By the adoption and operation of the dry cyanide process of treatment of sulphide quartz ores, Gen. Warner is now deriving large returns from his Cherokee county gold mines. Considering the capacity of the foregoing gentlemen and the wide experience of Judge W. W. Murray as a geologist, metallurgist and extensive mine owner, we are not surprised at the present fine showing on the Crown Mountain properties, but rather are rejoiced that gold mining in Georgia has finally been vindicated by intelligent methods. Having at their command the money and machinery necessary for the development of the great Crown Mountain ore bodies, Gen. Warner, Mr. Moore and Judge Murray have certainly adopted methods that will insure to the Dahlonega district at an early day one of the most economical and probably one of the largest gold producers in America.

Paints a Picture of Morning.

Ex-Governor Robert L. Taylor thus describes the coming of the morning as we sometimes see it:

"I saw the morning with the purveyor and burnished bow stand tip-toe on the horizon and shoot sunbeams at the vanishing night, and then in her bosom bend down and tinkle the slumbering world with straws of light until it awoke with laughter and song."

A thousand bugle calls from the rosy fire of the east, heralded her coming; a thousand smiling meadows kissed her garments as she passed, and 10,000 laughing gardens unfurled their flowery flags to her. The heart of the deep forests throbbed a tribute to a bird song, and the bright waters rippled a melody of welcome. Youth and love radiant with joy came hand in hand tripping and dancing on her train, and I wish that the heaven of morning might last forever."

The Western Texan, speaking of the man who wouldn't pay the printer, says, "May he have a scolding wife and a smoking chimney, and his days be many." And the Cin. News says, "May he repose his weary limbs on a bed of flees and be compelled to inhale the odor of ten thousand bed bugs." Orful, Orful!!

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism. From the Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C.

The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the remarkable result in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder for which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by The Matthews Drug Co.

Dr. GROVE at Tate's Buildings, can pull teeth without hurting! What great relief!

An illicit distillery was found in operation in New York City the other day. It was a big concern located in a basement, two stills capable of turning out 850 gallons of liquor a day. 2,500 gallons of mash was found. The parties were held on a $2,500 bail each.

In the United States court in Atlanta last week James Crane, of Dawson county, was sentenced by Judge Newman eighteen months in the state prison at Nashville, Tenn., for illicit distilling.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe. George W. Waitt, of South Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturer of an honest medicine." For sale by The Matthews Drug Co.

Now comes up a fellow who claims to have invented a Kissophone, which is superior to the old way. Away with such inventions! Don't you know there is nothing to better the sweet morsel taken from the lips with a report of the cracking of a whip. This reminds us of the story of a patent church agent who was showing the superior advantages of his church to a curious old lady in the rural districts. After looking at the machine she said: "Your machine may be all right, but I like the good old up and down way the best."—Ellicy Times.

A cigarette smoker in Boston recently sent to the manufacturers of a certain brand of cigarettes, 25,000 empty boxes, accompanied by a note, in which he said: "I have smoked the contents of all these; what reward will you give me?" The manufacturers replied "If you will smoke 25,000 more we will present you with a handsome metallic casket."—Exchange.

CURED BY JOHNSTON'S Sarsaparilla QUART BOTTLES. A MOST WONDERFUL CURE.

A Great Old Lady Gives Her Experience. Mrs. Thankful Orilla Hurd lives in the beautiful village of Brighton, Livingston Co., Mich. This venerable and highly respected lady was born in the year 1812, the year of the great war, in Hickox, Washington Co., New York. She came to Michigan in 1840, the year of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too." All her faculties are excellently preserved, and possessing a very retentive memory, her mind is full of interesting reminiscences of her early life, of the early days of the State of Michigan and the interesting and remarkable people she has met, and the stirring events of which she was a witness. But nothing in her varied and manifold recollections are more marvelous and worthy of attention than are her experiences in the use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Hurd inherited a tendency and predisposition to scrofula, that terribly destructive blood taint which has cured and is curing the lives of thousands and marking thousands more as victims of the death angel. Transmitted from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family in one form or another. It may manifest its appearance in dreadful running sores, in unsightly swellings in the neck or groin, or in eruptions of varied forms. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may be known as catarrh in the head, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption.

Speaking of her case, Mrs. Hurd says: "I was troubled for many years with a bad skin disease. My arms and limbs would break out in a mass of sores, discharging yellow matter. My neck began to swell and became very unsightly in appearance. My body was covered with scrofulous eruptions. My eyes were also greatly inflamed and weakened, and they pained me very much. My blood was in a very bad condition and my head ached severely at frequent intervals, and I had no appetite. I had sores also in my ears. I was in a miserable condition. I had tried every remedy that had been recommended, and doctor after doctor had failed. One of the best physicians in the state told me I must die of scrofulous consumption, as internal abscesses were beginning to form. I at length was told of Dr. Johnston, of Detroit, and his famous Sarsaparilla. I tried a bottle, more as an experiment than anything else, as I had no faith in it, and greatly to my agreeable surprise, I began to grow better. You can be sure I kept on taking it. I took a great many bottles. But I steadily improved until I became entirely well. All the sores healed up, all the bad symptoms disappeared. I gained perfect health, and I have never been troubled with scrofula since. Of course an old lady of 83 years and not a young woman, but I have had remarkably good health since then, and I firmly believe that JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is the greatest blood purifier and the best medicine in the wide world, both for scrofula and as a spring medicine." This remarkably interesting old lady did not look to be more than sixty, and she repeated several times, "I believe my life was saved by JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA."
